

Plymouth Quintet to Play Birmingham

By Paul Kelley

While the Philippines are being invaded by the Japs and Russia is receiving the same treatment from the Germans, Birmingham will attempt an invasion of the Plymouth hardwood camp, Tuesday (tonight).

Although this is not to be a surprise attack, it is to be a hard fought battle. The team from Birmingham wish nothing more than to average the 85-90 points handed them by the Plymouth football team in last fall's encounter.

While both schools have somewhat short teams, they hope to overcome this disadvantage with their speed and teamwork.

This year the Plymouth team will be an inexperienced bunch, having only two letter winners returning from last year's squad.

The Rocks will have played Ypsilanti and River Rouge by the time they meet the Maroon eagles. The Birmingham squad, which has defeated Keweenaw Harbor 27-17 and Cranbrook 42-20, will probably only be trying to maintain their perfect record but also to keep the jinx over the Rocks basketball squads, making it five victories in row to defeats for the Maroons since the beginning of basketball relations with Plymouth.

The probable lineup for Birmingham will be Stan Peterson and Ted Gosson, guards; Dennis Therman, center; Jack Steelman and Bob Murray, forwards. The starting five for Plymouth will probably be Gordon and Olds, forwards; Hunter, center; and Wilkie and Baker, guards.

There will also be a game between the reserve teams of the two schools, which will start at 7:00.

Quarton Quips

Every room in Querton is brightly decorated with Christmas decorations and trees. They play the lower grades had their Christmas parties. Miss Tate's room made Christmas trees and had their mothers up to eat them.

Last Wednesday, Mr. Pourcure, our principal, told the junior high that we were going to have an all school drill after the first of the year. He also told us that there was going to be a defense committee. George Campbell is Quarton representative.

Do you know that while diphtheria is one of the preventable diseases, the malady is definitely on the increase in Oakland County?

WATER HEATER STOPPED—

Firemen were called to the Mark Harris home Tuesday where an automatic water heater was out of control. Valves had stuck. Firemen cut off the service until a repairman arrived; there was no damage. The Harris family lives at 225 Hawthorne.

Baldwin HI-LIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS

Hi kids, (that includes ye old alumni, too)!

Mr. and Mrs. Cane Ho turned out to be one of the biggest Saturday night dances this year. The 17 and 18 year olds, boys and girls from Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Pontiac, and many, many used to be students at this institution of learning.

Rosemary Essig and Bill Conway were among the early arrivals and were Marion Gilbreath and Dick Harrell.

The decorations held to the name. Red and white strips of paper were to be seen everywhere. The same colored balloons also added to the festivity. There was a chandler of honest-to-goodness candy canes.

Oliver Olney, Harry Huff, Jim Johnston, and Dave Kennedy constituted the star line.

Gleny Kalibus and Bill Merrill were among the waiters.

H. Roy took Pat Iverson, while young brother, Wallie, escorted Jane DeWitt.

Drummin' Frankie Pierce was with Dottie Scott.

Wesley, who has just returned from California was one of the most popular boys at this year's dance.

Annie, who is now dating Leonie Agamontis, former student here.

Nancy Kurn, army Bill Singers were with Jeanne Merritt and Bob Clark.

Although he was not at the dance, Annie heard that Fred Sevin is home from Castle Heights and looks right good in his uniform.

Rosalind Randall and Bill Tigh were there, as were Ken Huff and Nancy Juhl.

From Dennison came were Patty Burke with Maynard Zimmerman and Doris Franklin with Pat Brittewyer.

From Ann Arbor was came Janyer Jensen escorted by U. of D.'s Paul Dunn.

Now, Annie would like to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The Goodriches Entertain Teachers

Mr. and Mrs. Larned Goodrich gave a tea Sunday from four to six o'clock at their home on Wallace street for Baldwin teachers and their husbands and wives.

The house was decorated with Yuletide colors, Christmas trees, and branches made a lovely arrangement for the table and mantle.

The hostesses were Mrs. Adele Hill, Miss Mabel Stickle, Miss Ruth Hill, and Mrs. Lloyd Chapman.

Jim Taylor, a former Baldwin student now attending Cranbrook, received his letter as an end of this year's Cranbrook football team.

Two future basketball opponents of Baldwin engaged in a game at the school gymnasium. Baldwin defeated Ferndale 24-10 in its opening game for both schools.

By an attempt in three games by erratic shooting, they showed promise of having a successful season. Ferndale was improved greatly before it can count on good season.

The Charltons' Gift Is Return of Son

Perhaps the greatest Christmas present in a lifetime was received by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Charlton in the return of their son, Max, from the Oakland County TB Sanatorium last Friday.

Max was discharged after a year and a half illness in which he was placed in the University Hospital at Ann Arbor and then later shifted to the sanatorium near Pontiac.

Although bed ridden for that period of time, Max emerged a master at the guitar, a bookbinder, and a finished knitter.

Maples Defeat Lincoln Parkers By 35 to 26 Score

By NORMAN PORTER

Taking the floor for the third time this season, the Baldwin hardwood team defeated Lincoln Park 35-26 last Friday night in the Baldwin gymnasium.

This was the first scheduled game for the Lincoln five but they looked very good.

In the first quarter both teams continuously felt out the power of their opponents, the status one being 9-4 in favor of Birmingham.

The second quarter was marked by fast hard playing by both teams, Birmingham retaining the lead at the half 13-10.

During the second half both teams rolled up the score at a fast clip. The count was 25-10 for the Maples at the three quarter mark, and 35-20 at the game ended.

There was a three-way tie for high scorer of the game as Kelley and Therman of Birmingham and Donke, Lincoln Park, each tallied nine points.

Therman, Maple center, snank five out of seven attempted free throws.

The captains for the game were Stan Peterson, Birmingham, and Donke and McGee, co-captains for Lincoln Park.

The Maples' next game is tonight at 8:30 at Plymouth.

With the Collegians

Stuart School

BOSTON, MASS.—RAYE ANDERSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, of Birmingham, a first of home last week for the Christmas holidays. Miss Anderson is in her second year as a dance student at the Stuart School in Boston, where she has taken part in several dance recitals this fall. As chairman of the entertainment committee for the student body, she was also largely responsible for the success of the Christmas dance.

In spite of her active program, Miss Anderson has found time for definite work and has been doing volunteer work at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

College of Wooster

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—HELEN SHERMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaver, Warren Court, a junior at Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass., was a member of the decoration committee for the annual Christmas dance of her dormitory, Cabot Hall. The formal evening dance was given Saturday, December 14.

Riverside Military Academy

GAINESVILLE, Georgia.—The fall term of Riverside Military Academy has closed with the last of Riverside's more than 600 students leaving for the Christmas vacation.

The vacation period will extend until 5:00 p. m. Sunday, Jan. 4, when the Riverside faculty and corps will reassemble at the academy's winter home at Hollywood, Fla.

Among those returning home for the 25-day stay are the following: Robert L. Clifton, son of Mr. R. L. Clifton of 17441 Springer avenue.

But What Happened To the Minnows?

One hundred and sixty-six bass after 185 northern pike fry less than an inch long were put in an experimental pond liberally stocked with minnows of all sizes at Drayton Plains state fish hatchery, the pond was drained and just 10 northern pike were removed. These 10, however, averaged more than 12 1/2 inches long. According to the conservation department, this remarkably rapid growth is approached by only one other northern water fish, the northern long nosed gar.
