

Cupid Has Busy Time in Birmingham and Bloomfield This Holiday Season

Margaret Lynn Wears White Satin For Marriage to Sergt. Forbes McKay

White satin formed the bridal gown chosen by Margaret Lynn Lynd for her marriage to Sgt. Forbes L. McKay, of Fort Custer, on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the home of the Rev. Robert Atkinson, Madison avenue, and Sergt. McKay, of C. Beckley's Christmas and white flowers decorated the chancel which was lighted by white lamps in cathedral chandeliers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lynd of Female avenue, and Sergt. McKay is the son of Mrs. Frances McKay of New York City and the late Mr. McKay.

The bride wore a white satin gown with long sleeves and a high collar. The groom wore a dark suit with a white shirt and tie.

Doris Meyer Weds George C. Morris On Christmas Eve

Doris Meyer, daughter of Mr. Eya Meyer, of Edmonds avenue, was married to George C. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Morris of Pontiac, at the bride's home on Christmas Eve. The Rev. Dan Jorgenson performed the ceremony.

On the mirror, over the fireplace, red berries outlined the words "Mary and Fred" while on the mantel and around the mirror arrangements of evergreen, red carnations, and red Christmas tree ornaments had been grouped. A glimpse of the mirror was the first news the 125 guests of the engagement of Mary Elizabeth Staley to Fredrick Anderson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus F. Jennings of the new Poigte Farms.
