

Original Variety Show Included in Plans for Players' Annual Yule Party

Mrs. Donald Bell, Director, Announces For Dec. 20 Show

Rehearsals are already in progress for the Players' annual Christmas party, which is really going to be different this year. The party will be at 9 p. m. at the Playhouse on Saturday evening, Dec. 20. This variety-type party, "Christmas Under the Big Top," which has been written and is being directed by Mrs. Donald Bell. Following the play there will be dancing and a midnight buffet supper.

Assisting with the production of the show are Ward C. Tolson, executive director; Mrs. Lane H. Bopp, in charge of programs; and Mrs. Robert K. Edmunds will be in charge of all the party details. The "Christmas Under the Big Top" is all wound up with Baby Snooks of radio fame. If you remember rightly, she ran away to the circus one year, and Mrs. Bell has used this as a starting point for the show. "The Circus of the Circus" and "The Circus of the Circus" are the two main acts. New Gift Shop Opens Monday

Wootton, Inc., of Orleans, Mass., creator of distinctive gifts in wood, announces the informal opening of their new studios at 856 N. Woodland Ave., Birmingham, on Monday, Dec. 8. We cordially invite you to inspect our line of wood gifts. Owing to the rush of orders, our wholesale division and department in building alterations, we are having to postpone our formal opening until after the holidays. However, we wish to give you the opportunity of seeing our vast assortment of hand-carved gifts, including the finest in wood, brass and silver. Our Art department is at your service at all times to personal your gift requirements. We specialize in etched college societies and fraternal emblems, cups of arms and monogramming. The history of the organization dates back five years to the combining of the hobbies of its founders, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wootton. They started a small retail manufacturing plant, but demand necessitated extending the line to include both wholesale and retail throughout the east. For the time, these products are being introduced to the middle west. Our studios in Birmingham are known as the Wootton Wood Studios; will include our gift shop, Art and finishing department and the main office for our organization. We sincerely hope that we have the pleasure of meeting you personally in the near future. Our shop will be open evenings until Christmas.—Adv.
