

Four Birmingham, Bloomfield Weddings Take Spotlight Over Past Week-end

Blush Satin Forms Bridal Gown Worn By Ruth Anderson

At 7:30 o'clock on Friday morning, Ruth Helen Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, of Lake Park...

Blush satin fashioned the wedding gown chosen by the bride. The Old English lace which was used to grace the heart-shaped neckline was taken from the wedding gown worn by Ruth's mother...

But tulle failed for the gown worn by Faye Anderson, maid of honor and sister of the bride. Her hair, she wore in plaques, from which fell a single length net veil of the color as her hair. Her shoes were bronze mules and tulle robes.

Two of the bridesmaids, Faye Phip and Genevieve Gay, wore dresses styled similarly to the bride's. They carried bouquets of white and pink roses, as did the other brides. Mrs. Robert Etter and Winifred Watkins, whose bouquets were of sage green tulle failed...
