

That and That

By G. R. A.

Your Wanderer Writes From Carlsbad, New Mexico. CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, Feb. 7, 1941.—I should know; they include belief in Providence, personal honesty, willingness to sacrifice, and a sense of responsibility to the demands of citizenship. Every school should emphasize these subjects to all.

West Law Suit Faces Taxpayers Here

Plea Renewed Slosson to Speak for Jr. High At Quorton

Dr. Slosson's talk, his third on the Community Home, Lecture Forum, will deal with the approaching climax in world affairs. The time is 8:15; those who do not have season tickets may make arrangements to attend by phoning the Community Home, 2406 Irving E. Boulevard.

Crull Tells Board There Is Not Space For Eighth Grade

The Board of Education is holding its advisory session on the question of a junior high school for Quorton School, which is a part of the eighth grade in the northwest corner of the city.

Enrollment Increases At the beginning of the new semester, an increased enrollment was reported for the eighth grade, Baldwin gained 69, Adams lost eight, Barham lost 28.

Car Thief Halted After Fast Chase

If Charles Glancy, 23 years old, of 967 West 12th, Birmingham, had been smart he would not have stolen a car in Grand Rapids last Monday.

Well-Known Novelist To Speak Feb. 27

On Thursday evening, Feb. 27, in the Carlsbad School Auditorium at 8:15 p. m., C. S. Forester, author of "Captain Horatio Hornblower," "Hunt for Quarters," "Strip of the Line," "The General," "The African Queen," "The Gun," "Payment Deferred," "Happy Return," will speak on the subject "The Practical Novelist."

Once Member of Hitler Youth Corps, Boy, 13, Likes Birmingham Better

To Bill Wagner, 13-year-old resident of Birmingham, the occasion of returning to his home in the United States after a five-year stay in Germany marked more than a change in space and time. It marked a difference in the whole way of living—these ways of living for which men are fighting to live.

Realistic Camp Scene for Scout Week

Announce Drive To Assist Hospital; Workers Picked

Announcement of a county-wide drive to build a nurses' home for St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, is made today by the Board of Trustees of Bloomfield Hills, general chairman of the campaign committee.

Miles Robinson Gets Scout Honor

Miles W. Robinson, principal of Burns School and chairman of the Boy Scout advancement committee for this district, was awarded the annual Outstanding Boy Scout Award.

Mistake to Cost Taxpayers $2,737

The zeal of former Troy Township and Birmingham assessors has backfired in a case just decided by Circuit Judge H. Russell Hildner.

Community Council Will Be Explained

"What is a Community Council and How Does it Function?" is the subject of the round table discussion for next Wednesday evening at 8:30 in the Community Home.

Give Revised List For Next Draft Quota

This is the revised list of young men who have been selected for induction in the Army for 1941 for a year's training.

Protest Old Building At Northern Limits

Another protest against the dilapidated brick building at the northern end of Highland Woodmen was held last night at a meeting of the City Recreation Commission.

Heacock Appointed To Recreation Body

Commissioner Luther Heacock was elected to the City Recreation Commission, replacing Commissioner Walter E. Moody who resigned as manager of Yellow Truck & Pontiac.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Legion to Inventory Skills of Veterans

Will Organize Tax Drive Feb. 20

The committee which will organize the tax drive for the Legion on Feb. 20 will be organized at a meeting of the Legion on Saturday, Feb. 22.

Grant St. Project Gets City Approval

The most-debated case of many months in the City Commission chamber was voted Monday night by the City Commission.

102 Trees Given To Beautify City

An additional 102 merchants have this week subscribed to the Birmingham Garden of this campaign to make Birmingham the city of the maine Yucca, flowering shrub.

Heacock Appointed To Recreation Body

Commissioner Luther Heacock was elected to the City Recreation Commission, replacing Commissioner Walter E. Moody who resigned as manager of Yellow Truck & Pontiac.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Red Cross Group Works on Bandages

Birmingham quilts for surgical dressings, Mrs. Buck reported this week, is 4,000 by June 1. All of these bandages are to be used in American camps and will be sent overseas.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Will Organize Tax Drive Feb. 20

Grant St. Project Gets City Approval

The most-debated case of many months in the City Commission chamber was voted Monday night by the City Commission.

102 Trees Given To Beautify City

An additional 102 merchants have this week subscribed to the Birmingham Garden of this campaign to make Birmingham the city of the maine Yucca, flowering shrub.

Heacock Appointed To Recreation Body

Commissioner Luther Heacock was elected to the City Recreation Commission, replacing Commissioner Walter E. Moody who resigned as manager of Yellow Truck & Pontiac.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Red Cross Group Works on Bandages

Birmingham quilts for surgical dressings, Mrs. Buck reported this week, is 4,000 by June 1. All of these bandages are to be used in American camps and will be sent overseas.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seek Second Levy to Pay Old Bonds

New Ball Diamond Assured at Pierce

Plans call for a new baseball diamond on property being acquired north of Pierce School, it was revealed by the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Interest of RFC In Bank Retired

The board of directors of the Birmingham National Bank has voted to retire the balance of the outstanding preferred stock of the bank.

Community House Annual Vote Held

Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, of Edgewood avenue, is president of the Community House board of directors for the second term as a result of the meeting held Monday evening.

Red Cross Group Works on Bandages

Birmingham quilts for surgical dressings, Mrs. Buck reported this week, is 4,000 by June 1. All of these bandages are to be used in American camps and will be sent overseas.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seek Second Levy to Pay Old Bonds

New Ball Diamond Assured at Pierce

Plans call for a new baseball diamond on property being acquired north of Pierce School, it was revealed by the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Interest of RFC In Bank Retired

The board of directors of the Birmingham National Bank has voted to retire the balance of the outstanding preferred stock of the bank.

Community House Annual Vote Held

Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, of Edgewood avenue, is president of the Community House board of directors for the second term as a result of the meeting held Monday evening.

Red Cross Group Works on Bandages

Birmingham quilts for surgical dressings, Mrs. Buck reported this week, is 4,000 by June 1. All of these bandages are to be used in American camps and will be sent overseas.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

Seaman Who Helped Sink Submarine Visits His Sister In Birmingham

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.

A Scottish seaman who helped the crew of the British battleship sink a German submarine in visiting his sister in Birmingham.