Bits of Birmingham... A railway car loaded with Detroit's finest dogs and their owners left Monday for New York to compete in the annual dog show there. Included were several Birmingham animals to wit, Ernest W. Sweeney's pointers, the dog named Mireva of Oakland and Bingham of the Lake-DuCharme Kennel and New ball toppers Eugene Evans of Tarrant and Bishop, owned by W. H. McCombs.

Two Birmingham pictures appeared in the Birmingham paper in the State Highway Department. The one of the new sign on the side of the highway is a picture of a truck and the other is a picture of a truck and the other is a picture of a truck.

An article in last week's Eccentric about Mr. and Mrs. Verne and Mrs. Verne's party for the parents and others interested in Scouting last Tuesday evening at the Community House. The program included a hobby show, moving picture and refreshments.
