

Madrigal Club of Detroit Is Appearing in First Concert Tuesday Evening

Baldwin Parent-Teacher Group Bringing Chorus to Birmingham

The final concert of the winter season by the Madrigal Club of Detroit is also that group's first program ever presented in Birmingham. They will sing Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium under the sponsorship of the Baldwin Parent-Teacher association.

The Madrigal club, a chorus of 30 women's voices, observed its 25th anniversary just last season with a concert in the Scottish Rite Cathedral of the Masonic Temple and Synphony Orchestra.

Charles Frederic Morse, the group's conductor since its organization, is bringing the chorus to Birmingham. Adaline Thatcher Yennan will be the conductor.

Appearing as guest soloist with the chorus will be Gilbert Gervais, talented young Royal Oak pianist who is known in Birmingham because of his former affiliation with the Junior League of the Birmingham Musicale.

He is a student of Margaret Hammett, of Detroit, and at the present time is serving as organist at the Shrine of the Little Flower. He appeared last year as soloist with the Michigan Federal Synphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner and Mrs. Ernest W. Sealhorn are co-chairmen of this concert and working with them is a large committee from the P. T. A.

Others will be Mary Gardner, Natalie Sealhorn, Carl McCutchen, Corinne Goodwill, Dorothy Essery, Joan Taylor, Midge Joslyn and Stephanie Buckridge.

In 1938 the United States imported $24,004,000 of rough diamonds, 75 per cent of which were used in precision machinery.

Classes Will Resume In Country Dancing

The second series of folk dance classes is beginning next week following the Thursday night family dinner at the Community House. This class, like the one held early in the fall, is sponsored by the Community House Association.

Mrs. Fred D. Farrar is again leader of the class.

Coronet Girls Planning Tea This Saturday

The members of the Coronet Club will honor their mothers and chaperons at a special tea which will be given at the Community House from 3 to 5 on Saturday, Feb. 22. Sally Booth and Mary Jane Bell are acting as general chairmen for this event.

Washington's birthday anniversary, which is the day the tea will be held, will work in very nicely with the decoration of the table. Traditional red, white and blue will be used throughout the entire theme of decoration, while such things as flags, cherry tarts, hatches, and other patriotic decorations will be seen.

Sally Ann Carey and Dorothy Stepanek are hostesses for this event. The four young ladies who will take their turn at the tea are Sally Booth, Barbara Holland, Annetta Stanley, and Jackie Potter. An attendance of nearly 70 members, mothers, and chaperons is expected.

War Relief Program Planned in Royal Oak

A number of Birmingham people are interested in the concert which is being given Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Royal Oak High School to benefit the British War Relief Society.

Local Council of Church Women To Observe World Prayer Day

The Birmingham Council of Church Women is making extensive plans for the observance of the World Day of Prayer on Friday, Feb. 28 in St. James Episcopal Church at 2 1/2 clock, Principal of the day will be Mrs. Marea A. Langer, director of religious education in the Birmingham public schools.

The church will be open all day for silent prayer.

The four historical projects supported by the World Day of Prayer, through the Episcopal Church, are: (1) Christian education for world-wide distribution; (2) the support of Union Christian College; (3) the support of the United States and (4) Indian activities in the United States government schools.

The women of Birmingham are urged to observe this special day by considering the charitable efforts toward these causes in their Christian fellowship and prayer.

This is an interesting history in the beginning of the World Day of Prayer. As far back as 1857 Christian Women in the United States came together to pray for home and foreign missions. In the early thirties a church day for world-wide prayer was held in Canada and the United States church women of all denominations joined in prayer. The first Friday in Lent being selected as the "Day of Prayer for Missions—Home and Foreign." It is interesting to note how various countries observed the World Day of Prayer in 1936. As morning dawned that day in Bangkok, a young child had just died and the planned service at the Bangkok Christian College became a memorial for Mary Carolyn Thorne.

A little care makes a splash.

It's those important little things within... that really make your house a Home

TIME and again we've taken particular note of just what it is that sets a home apart... making it seem as if its owner had dreamed an ideal, and then created it.
As a rule, it is a matter of the little things in the rooms so chosen and so arranged that you can fairly feel the warmth, the beauty, and the livability.
It is always a particular pleasure for us when we are asked to counsel with home-creators, and to show them our large and very carefully chosen collection of those big little important "things for within!"
