

U. of M. Alumnae Chooses March 11 for Annual Bridge Fashion Show

Mrs. Sappington Is Again Named General Chairman

The annual benefit Fashion Show and Bridge Tea will be held at the Birmingham Community House Tuesday, March 11, under the auspices of the University of Michigan Alumnae Association. The fashion show is by courtesy of the L. Hudson Company.

Tickets for the style show and bridge party will be on sale by members of the alumnae and proceeds of the afternoon will go to swell the fund for building of a girls' cooperative house at the University of Michigan.

It is to be called the Mary Henson House, a dormitory where 30 girls each year may help pay their way through college. Good news comes from Ann Arbor of a gift of $5,000 from the alumnae association to the house toward their goal and asks them to start almost immediately on erection of the dormitory.

Bridge playing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and the fashion show at 3:15, followed by a Hand-crafted silver, porcelain, and china display and made by Mary Gage, of New York, will be sold at the benefit. Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington is general chairman of this event for the third time. Mrs. Hugh J. McEwen is chairman of the ticket committee, assisted by Mrs. Ed-

Group From Here Attends Meeting

A group of Birmingham and Pontiac people attended an interesting meeting Friday evening at the Central Y. W. C. A. sponsored by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

The program of the evening was dedicated to the memory of the great founders of Western Hemisphere freedom—George Washington and Samuel Boylston—and an appeal for goodwill and a mutual understanding between Pan-Americans.

Miss Heloise Baines, of Washington, D. C., former secretary of the Pan-American Union, was the principal speaker of the evening. At the speakers' table were the resident counsel of most of the Latin-American countries, Senora Mendoga, a research student at the University of Michigan, and Claude Bowers, a resident counsel of Chile, Claude Bowers, Mr. Valdivieso in connection with the Detroit News during his stay in this country.

In the Birmingham audience were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yunker and their guests and Miss Lucille Georger.

A Pan-American evening for Birmingham is planned for a later date.
