4-County Group At School Meeting Held Here Friday

Fifty educators and school board officials from Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair and Washtenaw Counties met at Baldwin High School last Friday evening to attend a meeting called by the Michigan Education Association. The group was concerned chiefly with the school's financial outlook and endorsed these two proposals:

1. "The provision of $47,000,000 in state school aid (including the primary school interest fund) for 1941-42 and 1942-43 with the primary school interest fund pegged at $15,000,000 and with at least $32,000,000 in state aid for school operation."

2. "The adoption of a constitutional amendment to the 15 mill limitation provision, providing that any proposal to increase the 15 mill limitation may be carried by a majority vote instead of the present two-thirds vote."
