Legion Auxiliary Launches Drive For Membership

Revitalizing America's spirit of patriotism will be one of the undertakings of the American Legion auxiliary this year. Enrollment of the largest membership in the history of the organization is being sought to help accomplish this.

The auxiliary is giving emergency service in all fields where the patriotic work of women can be effective. "We need greater strength than ever before," spokesman said, "because of the greater need for the work we are facing in relation to this." We are asking all eligible women of Birmingham to come into our auxiliary until now and help us carry forward our program of service."

Eligibility to the Auxiliary is based upon World War service of the family. If the husband, son, father or brother served in the war and is a member of the American Legion the woman is eligible. The mothers, widows, sisters and daughters of men who lost their lives in the war are, of course, eligible. Also are those of veterans who have died since the war. Women who themselves were regularly enlisted in war services such as army, navy and marine corps, are eligible to join the Legion auxiliary.

The Charles Edwards unit will hold its next meeting at the Legion auxiliary will have a potluck luncheon at 1 o'clock. When all eligible women to the auxiliary will be welcome to attend.

Friday evening, the 17th district American Legion and auxiliary will hold a dinner and meeting at the Legion Home in Pontiac. Tuesday when the American Legion auxiliary will have a potluck luncheon at the Legion Home at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Nelson Glover and Mrs. Joseph Hubbard will be hostesses.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 25, the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion auxiliary will be held at the Legion Home at 8 o'clock.
