

Two Birmingham Catholic Groups Announce Annual Bridge Benefits

Hospital Group Chooses Feb. 18 for Annual Dance

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital auxiliary has chosen Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 18, for its bridge tea to benefit the hospital clinic. This party is an annual presentation affair that was first sponsored three years ago by Mrs. Donald S. Bell. Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor has been in planning these parties and this year the two women are co-chairmen of the event.

Pen Women Award Prizes to Members

In its annual contest for encouragement and growth in price and amount of prizes, the National League of American Pen Women awarded cash prizes to its members at a luncheon at Casa Loma recently.

Chain of Parties Is Begun Here

The chain of small and informal bridge parties which Mrs. Vernon Sewell, 586 Erie street, had of mind when she gave her own little party last week Friday to aid the British War Relief society, has apparently begun to take hold for Mrs. Cecil F. Hamilton, of Oak street, entertained Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. Carlisle M. Rowlett, of Glenary circle, is planning to have a group in next Wednesday—also to benefit the British War Relief society.

Northwood Party Is Set For Feb. 25 By Altar Society

We had hardly realized it but it is again time for another of those now famous Northwood parties which the society of Holy Name Church arranges each year.
