OF. COMING EVENTS

Two Accidents On icy Streets

Slippery pavement led to two auto crashes Tuesday and Wednesday. Yesterday morning, on Woodward near Adams, two cars going south collided. They were driven by William A. Smith, Berkeley, and William H. McFarland, 155 Winton.

Tuesday, at 4:45 p. m., two cars going south on Bethel collided. Mrs. Lillian M. Dutzler, Wallace street, stopped for Brown street, and was rammed by a car driven by Max Edward H. Karn, 363 George.

Musicales Buys Grand and Upright

The purchase of two pianos, rather than one as originally planned, was announced this week by members of the Birmingham-Musical club who raised $600 to buy a grand piano for Baldwin High School auditorium.

The money raised by a bridge party early in the month for a concert this month was sufficient to purchase an upright piano as well as the larger one originally planned. The upright is to be placed in the music room in the Hill School.

Old Vacant House Burns to Ground

A house at Crooks road and 16-Mile road, vacant the past 15 years according to the Sheriff's Office, burned to the ground early last Friday morning. C. R. Hunter, of 290 Highland avenue, Highland Park, was listed as the owner.

DRIVES ON RINK
Royce Thorpe, 17 years old, of 1373 Webster, was placed on 90 days' probation last week by Justice Parker. He was fined for driving a car on the Toney Field ice rink. The charge was reckless driving.

WAKE UP INVIGORATED
Above is the "INSULO" Cushions. Quilted cushions, burlap layers on each side; the most ambitious coils can't even start to poke their way up or down to wear your cover.

His Hobby Is Fortune Raising

Poultry raising has its merits, but for pure profits farmers might try breeding finchillas. Earl C. Allen of Lakeside, Calif., raises the squat-necked animals as a hobby and finds the 15 finch new chicks are worth nearly twice their weight in gold. As breeders, chick raisers like the one above sell at $100 a pair.

Woman Falls on Ice, Injures Her Ankle
At 8:04 Wednesday morning a Mrs. Robinson, whose first name the police did not obtain, fell on the ice on Maple avenue and injured her ankle.

South and Central American extending their influence in women's fashions. We see skirts and slacks reminiscent of Peruvian suits and those of South American countries. Colored dance frocks of net edged with sequins and man-made pearls are being shown.

Traffic Incidents Keep Bloomfield Police on Jump

The past week has been a busy one at the Bloomfield Hills Police station. There have been one serious driving case and four accidents since Saturday.

At 2:00 p. m., on Wednesday, a 1932 Buick sedan, owned by J. W. Brown, 642 Bluffton avenue, parked on the sidewalk following a collision with a car which was backing into it.

Betty Givener, 61 years old, 126 East Granddale street, Detroit, received first aid in a hurried hand at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Sunday morning following a collision which the car in which she was riding with Myrtle Stone, 19, 975 Adeline street, Detroit, caused into the rear of a car which hit the Detroit Hotel of Cars, when Otto stopped for a light at West Long Lake road and Granddale avenue.

Miss Givener received a fractured finger. Givener was a passenger in Otto's car and Daniel Bush, 975 Fairhill, Grace and Florence Robinson, 1077 Balmoral street, Detroit, were passengers in the car driven by Stone.

Colored spring coats are lovely, and Red is still good but there is a lively mustard shade that is nice in tweed. Flared jackets with color skins are being shown again. The jackets are quite long and some have full sleeves.

Fill. Mrs. Thib's car plumed over the bank at Cranbrook, and Lane Pine roads and a tree saved it from falling into the Rouge River.

The traffic light at this intersection, the police believe, was at the time of the accident. Mitof was uninjured.

James D. Tick, 14225 Glasserbury avenue, Detroit, was in collision early Sunday morning with a car driven by T. M. Gray, 2035 Kenmore road, Miral, when Tick attempted to turn left from the third lane on Woodward avenue into Lane Pine road. Damage was slight.

Clarence Spring, 450 E. 12th, Detroit, was in a collision with a car driven by Steve Mills, 2000 E. 12th, Detroit, on Woodward avenue, when the car driven by Steve Mills struck the car driven by Clarence Spring.
