

Despite Handicap, Macdowell Male Chorus Performs Well in Concert Here

By FENTON R. MATHEWS
The annual guest concert for members of the Birmingham Music Association was given at the Community House Monday evening with the Macdowell Male Chorus of Portland giving the program.

The auditorium was filled with music lovers that showed true appreciation for the music of this group having Frederick A. Froese as director, and Oscar Schmidt as accompanist.

I'll Leave It To You

By JOHN DENLER
For years, taxpayers have grumbled about the expense of local government, but they are doing anything constructive about it.

Denler:
According to an article by Leonard and McMillan in the January issue of "This Week Magazine," it has taken the national defense program the tremendous drain it will inflict upon the pockets of every American.
