Three one-act plays have gone into production by the Village Players and are being performed that group for a preliminary Saturday evening, Jan. 25, at the Village Playhouse.

Miss Frances Reese, violin instructor at Kingswood School, will be the soloist at the meeting of the Birmingham Musicales being held this afternoon at the Community House.

Francille Martin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Martin, of Detroit, formerly of Birmingham, was married New Year's Day to Winthrop H. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winburn Wallace, of Lexington, Mass., at a ceremony performed in the Galvary Methodist Church in Redford by her father, The Rev. E. W. Blackburn assisted.

The holiday parties carried over last Jan. 24, at least for as many lovers were concerned for this was the evening set aside by Gordon Meredith for the exciting and gala benefits which he has planned to benefit the Woman's Association of the Detroit Symphony society.

At the preliminary cocktail party given by Mrs. and Mrs. Morgan D. Staudahl at their home on West Lake road were Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shull, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Leven, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ballentine who were joined with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colledge, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gault and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Smith before going on to the larger party at Mr. Mendelssohn's home, "Quatermore."

Just before she went back to her studies at Hillsdale College, Doris Richard announced the completed plans for her marriage Feb. 25 which is to be held at 8:30 in the evening at Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. Charles H. Caidagan as the minister.

At that time Doris will become the bride of Jules DeBaubion and ushers are to be Gay E. Herbs, Jr., and Charles H. Repp, Jr.

The cast consists of two, Mrs. M. W. Cochran and Warren Pease, Jr.

Miss Reese, who studied violin at Wellesley College, at the Cleveland Conservatory of Music and at the American Conservatory of Music, will play the first movement from the Mozart "Adelaide" concerto held the second movement of Weber's "D Minor" and concerto.

The services were held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with boltona Altonese lace trimming and a veil of the lace. Her flowers were mums and sweet peas.
