

Two Garden Clubs Here and in Hills to Start New Year With Elections

Meetings Monday To Launch Season For Both Groups

Starting out the new year with a shining new leaf will be the two garden club groups of Birmingham and Bloomfield, both members of the Women's National Farm and Garden association.

Three Bloomfield Hills Boys Figure in Week's Society News

The girls out in Bloomfield Hills who are in the "great" mood have nothing on three boys out there, Lyman J. Craig, Jr., W. Edwin Mosier, Jr., and William Geoffrey Lechen, who since the holiday season have figured in society columns by virtue of their approaching marriages.

An open house on New Year's Day from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening will be the first of the "Rocky" Craig and George Hillaway's daughter of 14, Euloy Callaway of Widenawer avenue. "Rocky's" parents, you know are the Lyman J. Craig, and Orlan Hill of Bloomfield.

As the guests arrived, each was handed a check of money which was a replica of the first picture given to air-walk travelers with the wording "not just a woe but a joy to the occasion."

Miss Gledhill is a graduate of Miss Newman's school in Detroit, and "Rocky" is in school in Boston, and "Rocky" is in school in Boston.

Doctory Jane Wagner, of Highland Park, daughter of Mrs. Frederick A. Wagner, became Mrs. William M. Crandall, a divorcee, in a ceremony performed at St. James Episcopal Church Dec. 29 by the Rev. Warren L. Reynolds.
