Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces and services are invited to send us news of the boys' whereabouts and activities. Service men, dealers of a newspaper, included must be of interest.

Camp Livingston Furlough—Otis C. Thompson, son of Mrs. D. Thompson, phoned his mother from Camp Livingston...

July 4 Holidays—Men in the 23rd Field Artillery were home over the Fourth week-end; also some from Fort Custer...

WHAT LIVINGSTON NEEDS—Editor's note—Mrs. Kenneth E. Turner, 188 Oakland, recently returned from a visit to her son, Kenneth, stationed at Camp Livingston, La. She inquired as to the needs of the camp and herewith is the reply of the editor camp bastards.

Dear Mrs. Turner:—Men in Michigan and Wisconsin want to help their boys...

FRANKLYN WHITNEY HEARD FROM—Franklyn Whitney, former basketball coach at Baldwin High School, his address is now P.O. 2800, Baldwin, 2nd Prov. T. 26th, P. A. Rep. Cont. Port Hill, La. (What some of those abbreviations mean, we can only guess.)

ROLLER SKATER DRAFTED—Robert E. Mills, 25 years old of 335 West Drive, an enthusiastic roller skater, is one of those who will be inducted in the service this Tuesday, July 15. As soon as he gets settled he plans to send for his skates and put them to use in his spare time.

(Pvt. J. A. Terrell, S. and A. Batters, 2nd Battalion, 177th Field Artillery, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., writes this letter.)

From the Women's Angle

LILLIAN DIEDERICH—Bus talk: "Fancy meeting you here, Glous! We've got to go to town, Glous!" "By meeting you on this side of town, Glous!" "Fancy meeting you here, Glous!"

The girls came from a young woman holding on her lap a small, plump little baby about five years; she was addressing an older woman who quickly took the secret seat at her side.

A petulant frown settled on "Gert's" features as she replied: "I can't see how I could well when I'm sick all the time..."

The child nodded sleepily. It was supper time for most little boys and the Sandman always follows supper... a few mosquito bites

P. T. A. Theatre Review—The film comes through with the usual good Parent-Teacher Association...

THE BAKERY MEN'S STRIKE—A terrific and highly dramatic strike of the bakery men and their employers...

DUNN IN ATLANTIC—Jack Dunn, graduate of Baldwin High School and former high school teacher for the Eccentric is now on convoy duty with the United States Navy in the North Atlantic.

(Editor's note—Another Birmingham youth, Maurice E. Thompson, a volunteer in the June quota, writes to tell us of his experiences at Fort Leonard Wood.)

Editor, The Eccentric:—We're located in the Ozark about 3,500 feet above sea level, covering about an acre, but complete housing facilities for 37,800 men which should be filled by the end of this month. It's really beautiful here, as the camp is placed in the woods. The only trees that were removed were old poplar, hickory, sycamore and parake grounds.

Social Briefs

MRS. H. LEONARD WILTON left Tuesday for Black Mountain, N. C., where she plans to spend the remainder of the summer.

THE GEORGE A. BEECHER, and three daughters, HARRIET, CAROLYN and BABARA are in the Upper Peninsula at Manistique Lake. Mr. Beecher is expected back next week but the family plan to stay until the middle of August.

MR. AND MRS. VERNE L. MURRAY and their daughter ANN are on in Massachusetts at Cape Cod. Mr. Murray plans to be back toward the end of July. Mrs. Murray and Ann will remain for the summer.

MRS. G. GEORGE DWELLEY has returned from a week's trip to New York.
