

Young Socialites of Birmingham and Bloomfield Make Work of Vacation

Factories, Camps Fill Vacation-time Of College Folk

For some frivolous folk, summer vacations mean summer vacations—but not so for many of Birmingham and Bloomfield's young socialites. For instance, Colin John, son of the W. A. P. Johns, and a student at Yale University during the winter months, is now working at the Dow Chemical works in Midland, Mich.

Bill Weeks, young hopeful of the H. Rodney Weeks, Dick Wenzel, son of the E. W. Wenzel, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strong's son, Ed, are all hard at work at the Pontiac Yellow Coach. All three boys finished at Cranbrook this spring. Wallace McLay is also spending his vacation from college at Yellow Coach. Wallace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus D. McLay.

Trade School Popular

Bill Criss, who goes to Lowell, in Lenox, Mass., is an inspector for the Detroit Shopping News. He is the son of the W. D. Criss—the other son, Jack, is spending his time at the Henry Ford Trade School. He goes to the Middlesex School at Concord, Mass. Three other boys at the Ford Trade School are Ed Spitzer, son of the Ed Spitzer; Bob Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Foley; and Steve Yorky, of Pleasant Ridge, who goes to Swarthmore.

Queen of Blueberry Land

MISS RUTH PETERSON, 20-year-old brunette, who will reign as queen over Macintosh's third National Blueberry Festival, to be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, July 25, 26, and 27. Queen Ruth will be crowned at elaborate ceremonies Friday night. Governor Murray D. Van Weaver of Michigan has promised to officiate at the coronation.

Hillendale Group Receives Awards

Sunday was the first visit of the season at Camp Hillendale. Parents and guests were entertained with a full program from 9 to 5 o'clock. Carl Sandberg, counselor, awarded ribbons to the following Birmingham campers: Conrad Burkman, Donald Degen, Franklin Fleming, Robert Foline, Jackie Lutz, Peter Mitchell, Paul Penfield, Jimmie Thomas, Faidra Hemstead, Kay Lally, Barbara McCormick, Pamela Stump, Ilo Thurman and Mary Ellen Given.

Featured on the program was a fencing exhibition in which Ilo Thurman, Pamela Stump and Conrad Burkman took part.

Hillendale campers from Birmingham this season are Sandra Henderson, Conrad Burkman, Franklin Fleming, Paul Penfield, Harry Carson, Carl Sandberg, Robert Foline, Donald Degen, Peter and Robin Mitchell, Jackie Lutz, Patricia Hemstead, Dorothy and Betty Lou Thurman, Sue Williams, Annette Stan, Annabelle McLay, Kay Lally, Barbara McCormick, Mary Ellen Given and Pamela Stump.

Social Briefs

THIS AFTERNOON Joan Murray, Mary Sue Kern, Barb and Joan Shaw, Edie Hays, Jean Williams, and Marjory Smith are taking themselves off to the races. Today has been designated "Ladies' Father Day" at the Detroit Race Track—the rest of that current tradition being the gift of honor. After the races the seven girls are returning to Joan Murray's home in the Hill for a hot-dish supper.

PAT VANDERGRIFT of New York, Pa., is spending three weeks at the Gardner Cobb home on Surfside road as the guest of Bill Cobb.

Winthrop D. Allen And Miss Dargard Married in East

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Dargard of New Bedford, Mass., of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Dargard, to Winthrop Doyar Allen, son of Mrs. Winthrop D. Allen, of Birmingham, and the late Mr. Allen.

The wedding took place May 10 at Ithaca, N. Y., the Rev. Donald Cleary, chaplain of Cornell University, officiating at the ceremony. Miss Florence Bonefield and Edna Whitteman, classmates at Cornell, were the only attendants.

The bride is a graduate of New Bedford High School and in 1940 received her bachelor's degree from Cornell University where she was a member of Alpha Epsilon Pi Sorority. Mr. Allen, whose mother is the former Marie Louise Parker, daughter of Harvey C. Parker and his wife, the well-known pharmaceutical house of Parker-Davis & Co., was graduated from Cornell in 1937 and is a member of the class of 1941 at Cornell. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta and the Omega Scholastic Society.

Ted Snyder Honored Before Departure

A farewell dinner party was given in Ted Snyder's honor last Saturday evening at the home of his parents on Oakland avenue. Ted left yesterday to resume his work at the hospital where he is classed as a "volunteer" or "3rd classman" the equivalent of a college sophomore. After dinner they all went out to the Eastwood dancing.

Those present included his date, Leah Juller, and Don Matthews—Madeline Paves, Mugs Colgrave—Pat Anderson, Nancy Mc-

Some of the dates already in hand for the affair are Sally Ann Carey, Sheldon Olson; Ginny Bestwick, Howard Bretnover; Barb Sauer, Jim Garland; Barbara Holland, Bill Roberts; Doris Franklin, Phil Bretnover; Betty Roth, Gene Richardson; June Weller, Carl Schaeffer and Mary Jane Bell and Jim Jase.

Former Residents Feted This Week-end

A weekend crowded with both big and little parties has been planned for Mr. and Mrs. Sam and Mrs. Mitchell, formerly of Birmingham and now from St. Louis, Mo., who arrived yesterday in the Rutunda Inn, where they will stay until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lagone L. Nierdrip of Gordon court, are entertaining 14 guests at dinner Thursday evening at Grand Lake Country Club in honor of the Mitchells. Saturday morning the Godfrey Strelinger are having a get-together breakfast at their home on Dorchester road for Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and for the evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hood have planned a buffet supper.

Betty and Virginia Hart To Entertain at Tea

Betty and Virginia Hart plan to entertain around 70 of their friends at tea tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of their parents, the Henry Harts, on Lake Park drive. Both girls are spending the summer at home away from their studies—Betty will be a junior at Lawrence College next year and Ginny will be a senior at De Pau University.

Assisting at the tea tomorrow afternoon will be Margaret Smith, Betty Ann Pease, Mary Grubbs, and Susan Hartman.

A man went into a drug store and asked for a mustard plaster. "We don't have any mustard," said the pharmacist behind the lunch counter, "but we can give you some 'magnesium.'" —Kingsman, Kan. Journal.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL B. HOFFMAN

MR. AND MRS. PAUL B. HOFFMAN, of Surfside road, had as their house guests this last week end Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ream, of Evansville, Indiana. Honoring their guests, the Hoffmans were hosts at a cocktail party Saturday evening at the home of the Hill Country Club Dinner Dance.

from Baldwin High School this year, may be found most any day at Stroup's Market, right here in Birmingham.

Girls Do Their Bit

But the male of the species is not alone in being seriously involved. Ethel Patterson, who finished at Baldwin this year, is working with the Bell Telephone Co. Barbara Holliday is about to depart for Camp Westminister where she will be a counselor for the remainder of the summer.

Another camp counselor is Nancy Strelinger, graduate of Wellesley, who left Camp Bryon Acon in Wisconsin. Elizabeth White is head of the Older Girls' Unit at Camp Alice Chester in East Troy, Wis.; Elizabeth hails from the University of Michigan. Helen Rounds is also being a counselor at Camp Interlochen near Traverse City, Mich.

Several more of the seriously inclined young set make a daily trek to Pontiac every morning to the Business College where they are learning to type. Among the most faithful are Marjorie Smith, Jeanne L. Hommedieu, Dignita Fitzner, Ceco John and Joan Muzzy.
