Fourth of July Celebrations at Many Clubs Hold Interest of Socialites

Activities Include Swimming, Golfing, Dancing, Sailing

Most Birmingham and Bloomfield folk are planning to spend a very happy and active Fourth of July week-end right here at home. Principal reason for the stay-at-homes being the attractive programs planned at the various country clubs.

Orchard Lake Country Club

The Orchard Lake Country Club has planned a gala week-end crammed full of activities most every minute. On the lake there will be team races starting at 10:30 o'clock in the morning for junior boys, junior girls, and senior men—five boats for each group.

From 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon swimming events will be held. There is to be the annual watermelon derby and also a parachute race, if the weather is favorable. Dave Mathews is in charge.

From 3 p. m. on, mixed sailing races for men and women will be run, the first event being a half and half race, and the second a balloon race. The short, diamond-shaped course for these races will be laid out by brightly colored buoys.

Nine different events will take place in the junior lawn races, scheduled to start at 1 p. m. Promptly at 3 o'clock the Mammoth "one ring" circus will be held for the amusement of both kiddies and adults. Bill Gail's orchestra is to feature music for a tea dance which will last until time for the fireworks display at 9 p. m.

Golf, sailing and tennis events will be held all week-end, with a big special Saturday Nite Dance from 9 p. m. till 2 a. m. scheduled for Saturday night.

Pine Lake Country Club

Fun and stuff at Pine Lake Club is due partially to the hard work of Blaine Eynon who is a member of the entertainment committee. There is to be a flag tournament and mixed driving contest, both with prizes on the golf course. Especially for the children will be the Rooney Circus including bucking mules, trained horses, trapeze artists, trained dogs, and clowns. Following the big show there is to be a program of games and sporting events on the lawn for children, all of which will be under the direction of Helen Massey.

A big display of fireworks, following dinner tha night, will finish off another Fourth of July celebration. The following day semi-finals in the club's tennis tournament will be played off in the morning, and golf and swimming are expected to hold forth for the rest of the day. Max Gail and his orchestra, with Jean Carroll, vocalist, will furnish the music for a gala dinner dance Saturday evening.

Birmingham Golf Club

Starting the day out right at the Birmingham Golf Club will be the Kicker's tournament with prizes, and in the afternoon a mixed two-ball foursome, ladies invitational, has been scheduled. Nor will the children be forgotten because a grand afternoon of games and running races has been planned for them, all of which will be supervised by a recreational director.

There also will be a buffet dinner going on most of the day until time for big event of the day —the fireworks display. Saturday and Sunday morning will be occupied with Kickers Handicap events, and Saturday evening is being taken up by a Wind-up Saturday Night Dance.

Oakland Hills Country Club

Independence Day at Oakland Hills Country Club will be resplendent with every imaginable type of activity going on. In the morning there is to be a flag tournament on the golf course, and starting at 1 p. m. a mixed two-ball foursome. Both the tennis courts and swimming pool are expected to be busy all the day long.

Children's games and races will be held from 2:30 to 4 under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murray, then from 4:00 to 5:30 the young fry will participate in swimming contests under the direction of the swimming coach. A buffet dinner will be served in the evening and dancing will be going from 6 p. m. until midnight.

Juniors and children will hold the dance floor until 8 p. m. when the adult party will begin. Ray Coryell's orchestra will furnish the music.

For Saturday and Sunday a blind hole tournament and tennis matches have been arranged. The whole week-end wind up will be at the buffet luncheon on Sunday evening.

Bloomfield Hills Country Club

Regular golfing events, as well as dinners and luncheons, will be held out at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club throughout the whole week-end. The climax comes on Saturday evening with a big special dance featuring Eddie Allan and his orchestra.

IN FASHION NOW

Cottons are lovely this season. Cool, striped voiles—checked gingham suits and organdy evening gowns will do the clock around for the most fastidious women.

Cottons can be kept so fresh and sweet, too, that it is no wonder so many women prefer them to frocks of other materials during the warm months.

The Golden Text (Isaiah 42:8) is: "I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Deut. 6:4,5): "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.331): "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality or existence except the Divine Mind and His ideas."

Miss McKee Says Vows Saturday

The First Methodist Church was the scene of Margaret Ann McKee's marriage to Elmer R. Beers at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The services were read by the Rev. Charles C. Becker.

The bride wore a simple gray and white sheer street dress with white accessories, including a small white flowered hat with a green veil. Her corsage was made of lavender orchids. The only attendant was the bride's sister, who chose a gown of slate blue sheer crepe.

The bridegroom's mother wore a print dress, tea rose corsage, and large white hat. Margaret's mother was gowned in a green and white sheer print and wore white accessories. Her flowers were roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community House for about 75 people. Later the young couple left for an Eastern motor trip.

Rev. and Mrs. Becker Entertain Seminar

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles C. Becker entertained at breakfast Tuesday morning their seminar group of which Mr. Becker is the leader. The wives accompanied their husbands.

The seminar, composed of Methodist ministers, has just finished an advanced course in New Testament study, and will begin in September a course in "The Philosophy of Religion." At a short business meeting following the breakfast, a few new members were elected to fill the vacancies caused by changes in Conference appointments, some of the former members having been sent to churches too far away for further participation in the meetings.

P.-T. A. Theatre Review

(The film comments herewith are supplied by the Birmingham Council Parent-Teacher Associations.)

BLOOD AND SAND—A lavish reproduction of the Ibanez novel of bull fighting in Spain. Exceptional photography. Exciting for 8 to 14-year olds, rather mature, but passable, for 14 to 18 years, and excellent for adults according to the California P.-T.A. REPERTORY AT LEISURE—Somewhat trite plot with fine action in present day New York, for adolescents and young people, according to D.A.R. (Birmingham Theatre, starts Friday, July 4, runs one week.)

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT—Grim, absorbing tragedy of war torn Europe. Excellent acting and direction. The California P.-T.A. says no children, harrowing for adolescents, and excellent for adults. THE GREAT MR. NOBODY—Mr. Nobody is a tiny cog in a big machine trying as hard as he can to become bigger. Pleasant, story. National Board of Review judges it a juvenile and family picture. (Bloomfield Theatre, starts Thursday, July 3, runs one week.)

Orchard Lake Club Sailors Have Tuesday Luncheon

Women sailors out at Orchard Lake Country Club held their regular meeting-luncheon Tuesday noon. Birmingham residents attending included Mrs. A. J. Underwood, Mrs. T. F. W. Meyers, Mrs. Aaron Webster, Mrs. Newman T. Halverson, Mrs. Basil Brown, Mrs. William Stevens, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. William Lambert, Mrs. Robert Goodlier, Mrs. T. W. Eubanks, Mrs. D. A. Murray, Mrs. Graham Jean Graham, Mrs. A. C. Gerrard, and Mrs. L. C. Howe.

Linens, the good, however, and black sheers are very popular with their colorful accessories or touches of white.

Embury Changes Time of Services

The Embury Methodist Church, Bermaville and Woodward, will change the morning worship service from 11:00 a. m. to 9:30 a. m. beginning Sunday. All classes of the Church School will meet at 10:30 a. m. to facilitate the coordination of the new program. Other services will be at the scheduled hours.

Embury's new pastor, Rev. Dan R. Jorgensen, will begin a series of six sermons Sunday morning on the book of Philippians, and the general theme will be: "Happiness for Times of Confusion." The title of the first message is "Happiness Through Thankful Prayer," and it will be a study of Philippians 1:1-11.

Embury Church extends a cordial welcome to all those in its community who have no other church connections to participate in the new program.

Some of the pipes are stinking this season. One particular model decorated with hand-painted roses and one side is unusually chic. The model wore a pleated taupe hat with this number.

The Lake Erie shoreline of Michigan is the shortest of any of the state's Great Lakes shorelines, only 47 miles.
