

Homemaking and Careers are Stressed At First 'Wolverine Girls' State'

Editor's Note—Alice Bronson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul E. Bronson, 845 Greenwood avenue, was sent by the Birmingham American Legion Auxiliary to the first "Wolverine Girls' State," held at Ann Arbor, similar to the one for boys at Lansing. She had an interesting time, and her report follows.

After staying at Jordan Hall on the campus of the University of Michigan as a member of the first Wolverine Girls' State, I will try to give a brief account of the events which took place during the week of June 13 to 26.

The University was very generous in granting the American Legion Auxiliary the privilege of using the several buildings in which we attended the different meetings.

The main difference between the Girls' State and Boys' State is that homemaking and occupational opportunities for young women are stressed in the Girls' State. How-

Logs of Michigan white pine on their way to the sawmill. Trees of this size are rare today.

The wooded half of Michigan

Most of all Michigan's resources was once its virgin timber. In Southern Michigan the hardwood was cut to clear farms. And to the north, the vast pine woods were turned into lumber for building the nation's cities.

Today, under wise methods of reforestation, the woods are growing up again. About 20,000,000 acres—over half Michigan's land area—are wooded. By scientific cutting, these forests produce more than 400,000,000 board feet of lumber a year, besides firewood, pulpwood for paper, tanbark, veneers and other products.

Legend has it that when the mythical Paul Bunyan was lumbering Michigan, his shout could be heard from Metontoine to Saginaw if the wind was right. Modern lumbermen and forest rangers don't have such voices. But by telephone they keep in touch with woods operations, market their products, and control forest fires, far more efficiently than the old-timers ever could.

Proposes Higher Income Tax Base

Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Equity Bureau, Federation, urged lower exemptions, eliminating the earned income credit and increasing the normal income tax from 4 1/2 per cent to 10 per cent, in testimony before the House Ways and Means Committee. He opposed increases in excise taxes which have been proposed by the Treasury and the committee.

O'Neal said that the flag of the United States of America is the living symbol of the country.

"We then went in groups to several cities in which we received instruction in higher selection of jobs, training and setting the table, and raising the family. This evening at dinner, his knowledge of setting and setting the table was put into practice. One table set seemed to include one set of the table and the other one set of the table.

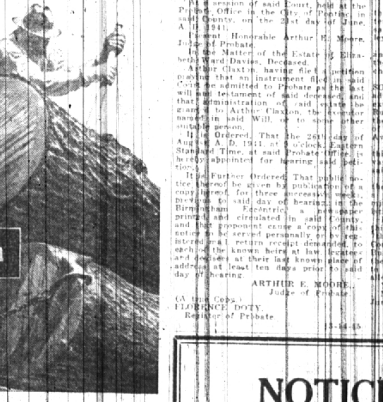

Friday afternoon we held the election of officers for the Wolverine Girls' State and the officers and members of the chorus.

Friday evening the annual picnic was held. The picnic was well attended. The University Band also played several selections.

Saturday morning we attended classes about high reforestation, home reforestation, and health in the home. It is interesting to note that the Health Service explained that adequate rest, exercise and relaxation are essential to good health. Movies were shown about the control of blighting and the transportation of wood products.

See Play
Sitting afternoon we attended the play "Golden Boy" in which Betty Johnson and Edna Lindholm played the leading parts. The play was very well received and we witnessed the Commencement Exercises. A good many officers and members of the chorus were present. It was very interesting to see many girls and boys.

Sunday morning all the girls attended the church service in which the girls sang and the boys sang. It was very interesting to see the boys and girls.

Plans to Over-ride Governor's Veto

LANSING—A determined effort will be made to pass the Brake bill, which will give Governor Van Waggoner's veto, which came after the measure had been passed by the Senate and House by a two-thirds majority. The veto was not announced until after the Legislature's regular session had ended.

The opportunity to pass the bill over the veto will come with the subject "Golden Boy" with us and also showed us the way in which actors and actresses put on their make-up. Along with this he tried to point out how street make-up should be properly worn.

Tuesday afternoon was free so the girls might participate in the "Golden Boy" with us and also showed us the way in which actors and actresses put on their make-up. Along with this he tried to point out how street make-up should be properly worn.
