

Lucy Welch Weds In Home Gardens At Noon Today

At high noon today Lucy Welch and Knud Onager will repeat their marriage vows in the gardens of the Charles G. Welch home in Bloomfield Hills. The Rev. Charles H. Gadsden will officiate.

Lucy has chosen for her wedding a simple dress of white mousseline de soie made with a very full skirt. She will wear a broad brimmed white hat. The only attendant, her sister, Ann, will wear a gown of peach mousseline de soie and a wide brimmed hat. Little Stephanie Brown from Darien, Conn., niece of the bride, will be the flower girl. Charles Evans, of New York, will be the best man.

A large reception will be held at the Welch home following the wedding, after which a luncheon is being given at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club for members of the families and the bridal party. The young couple will leave for an Eastern trip through the white mountains, later on they will live in New York.

Among the out of town guests for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Lutz Onager, of New Haven, Conn., Charles Evans, of New York, Mrs. James Lewson, Mrs. Harry Seymour, and Mrs. Victor Stamm, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Jean Thornton, of Swigley, Pa., and Mrs. Wayne Y. Brown, and daughter, of Warren, Conn.

Miss Welch is the daughter of the Charles G. Welch of Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Onager is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Knud Onager of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Carl Sanders Feted By Hillandale School

The staff of the Hillandale Boarding School at Holly, entertained fifty guests at a tea, Saturday, June 15, honoring one of its members, Carl Sanders, who is a member and valedictorian of the 1941 senior class of the Holly High.
