Bridal White Will Be Key Color Directors' Board To Assist at Teas Sunday, Monday

With white the color keynote of her bridal party Virginia Crane Farrar will become the bride of James Edwin Dickson at 6 o'clock this evening in the St. James Episcopal Church. The Rev. Warner L. Foy will officiate.

The bridal gown is fashioned of white mousseline de soie, with long flowing sleeves, and a fitted bodice onto which is shirred a full skirt, ending in a train. Her veil will be attached to a circlet of white and pink flowers and Virginia's bouquet will consist of white brides flowers and delphinium.

Dignita Farrar, her sister's maid of honor, will wear a host-fest dress made of white organza and bound with white eyes. The five bridesmaids will all be crowned in white jerry frocks, will wear small white veils and carry bouquets of peonies. They are Marjory Baldwin, Marion Dickson, Cora Johnson, and Louise and Shirley Hersey.

Mrs. Farrar has chosen, for her daughter's wedding, a black suit not gown made with insets of black lace. The black net is worn over a white dress and is fastened with a peach satin slip. She will carry shattered carnations.

Herd, which will wear a white tulle affair, will be Frank Farrar, Ward Cuckinham, William Barrard, and John W. Barrard.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. McKee Thompson who are living at 947 Westwood drive? They came here from San Marino, Calif., and are now in Birmingham because it seemed to be such a nice little town.
