

Miss Porter Weds Karl Ehrenfeld Friday Evening

Eleanor Porter and Karl Ehrenfeld will be united in marriage at 8 o'clock, Friday evening, at a small wedding in the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Porter, of Pierce street. After the services, which will be read by the Rev. Charles G. Becker, friends of the young couple will arrive for the reception.

Eleanor's sister, Phyllis Porter, will be her maid of honor, and Karl has asked Lynn Gordon, of Detroit, to be his best man. Dorothy Platt, of Pleasant Ridge, will play the piano. The young couple plan to take a motor trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City, then return to Michigan for a hot trip on the great lakes. On their return they will make their home, temporarily, on Littlefield avenue, in Detroit.

(Out of town guests, who will be here for the wedding, include Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Kligour and Mrs. Kenneth Behrens, of Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. John Kligour and son, Glenn, of Maywood, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Long and daughter, Virginia, of West Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kligour and Mrs. Florence Dewey, of Jackson, Mich.; and Mrs. Don Snyder, of Mason, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Porter, and sons, Richard and James, of Oronoso. Other guests are expected from Detroit, Grosse Pointe, and Plymouth.

Forty-Seven Students Try Home-Garden Projects

Forty-seven school children have registered for home-garden projects according to Mrs. James J. Kelly, chairman of the Educational Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Club. The project is being carried on through cooperation with the summer recreational committee, the Garden Club, and the schools.

Mrs. Kelly and members of her committee will visit the pupils' gardens during the summer months and give any assistance necessary. Some cards have been provided on which the progress of each young gardener will be reported throughout the vacation season. The pupils themselves are being graded on their interest, whether or not they are doing their own work, and if they are anxious to improve, and if they are well informed. The seven points on which gardens are being observed are: plan followed

High Executioner Is Most Amusing Of 'Mikado' Cast

Colorful Japanese costumes and antics, against the background of the Cranbrook Greek Theatre, provided the richest and most world charm for St. Dunstan Guild's presentation of "The Mikado" last week. The amusing Ko-Ko, lord high executioner, played by Fred Nicholson, provided the funniest of the three roles. The other two, the first and second were combined into two, and the lines and story—some of them—were changed. The director, Fred Nicholson, and his assistant, Ray Muz, Orchestra Director, Walter Curtis, and Production Manager, Hubert Davis all deserve credit for the final results of their work.

Most outstanding was the character of Ko-Ko, played by the Jacksonian Choral Club, assisted by members of the Belcher Greek Theatre. Ray Muz, a class second and third to Ko-Ko in popularity, gave him less than five director's points. Director's points were given to Ko-Ko, and to the other two, more than justice to his part as Ko-Ko. Ko-Ko, as played with her own little, and her own little, has been convulsed and charmed the audiences with his portrayal of the mighty Mikado. The character of Ko-Ko, as played by Donald who played the part of Piti-Sing.
