

Two Bloomfield Hills Girls Make Their Formal Bows To Society This Week

Doris Vehmeyer Plights Her Troth To John Cole, Jr.

The engagement of Doris Adele Vehmeyer and John F. Cole, Jr., was made known Sunday afternoon when Doris' young sister, Marie Ann, picketed a cocktail party being given at her parents' home, with a placard announcing the Vehmeyer-Cole Union. Doris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Vehmeyer, of Shirley drive, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cole, of Fairfield avenue. The marriage will be an event of November. Doris graduated from Wildcatt Junior College, Swarthmore, Pa., attended the Tope-Cornell School in New York, and last year went to the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Cole graduated from the University of Michigan last year and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

Mrs. Winborn Fetes New Daughter-in-law

MRS. BYRON R. WINBORN gave a large tea Tuesday afternoon at her home, on Dewey avenue, to introduce her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. James H. Winborn, to her friends. The young Mrs. Winborn was the former Lee Mixer before her marriage on May 10. Garden flowers, including larkspurs, gladioli, and peonies, were used throughout the Winborn home for the occasion. Alice Knight and Mrs. Fred Hunter, Jr., Mrs. William Gerstenberger, of Detroit, Mrs. Robert S. Restrick, Jr., and Mrs. E. McCard Mulick, Jr.

Mrs. Wasey Called By Death of Mother

Mrs. E. G. Wasey was called last week by the death of her mother, Mrs. Sale E. Wilkes, at Springfield, Mo., on Wednesday evening. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon. Mrs. Wilkes was well known here and had a great many friends in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. She had spent the past 25 summers here with Mrs. Wasey.

Miss Agnes Baynes Elected District Auxiliary Officer

Agnes Baynes, past president of the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, was elected district auxiliary officer at the annual meeting held Tuesday, June 17, in Holly. Other new district officers are Mrs. W. L. Johnson, president, from Northville; Mrs. E. V. Meyers, vice-president of Pontiac; and Mrs. L. Landis Curtis, chairman of Royal Oak. New officers are to assume their duties early in October.

Rev. Becker Presides At Church Meeting

Preparatory to the opening session of the Detroit Conference was an annual report by the minister and related committee members at Boulevard Baptist Church Friday evening. The Rev. Charles C. Becker, of the First Methodist Church, was the presiding officer. For ten years, Mr. Becker has been chairman of the Board of Ministerial Training of the Conference, the body which organizes the ministerial qualifications of the young men coming into the ministry. During that period of time, Mr. Becker's efforts have raised the standard for admission and made him one of the highest in the Methodist ministry.

Anne Nichols Has Party at Grosse Pointe

Anne Nichols, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hibert Sloam Nichols, shared honors with her close friend, Emily Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Peters, of Grosse Pointe, at a dinner party given at the Grosse Pointe Country Club last evening at 8 o'clock. Dressed almost, but not quite, in black, she carried twin bouquets of pink and red roses, pink carnations, and forget-me-nots. Anne, herself, was all done up in pink lace, made with a full skirt, short puffed sleeves and a deep V-neckline. Mrs. Nichols was very much on hand wearing a gown of powder blue chiffon. Emily's dress was a simple, light pink marquisette. Some of the young crowd from Bloomfield Hills seen dancing there included Susie Hartman, Eleanor Ward, Mary Gables, Marilyn White, Bill Hartman, Chuck Clark, Bob Tyson, Bill Ewald, John O. Palm, and Dick Flannery. No definite plans have been made as to Anne's future as yet. Last spring she finished at the Bloomfield Hills High School, and while there was honored by the D. A. R. For the past semester, Anne took a couple of courses at the University of Detroit.

Local Girl Scout Mariners Attend Grand Haven Gam

Eight members of the Mariner Ship unit of the Birmingham Girl Scouts, attended a picnic (regally) at Grand Haven last week-end. Early Saturday morning the girls were taken on an excursion to the Grand Haven. At noon that day they were guests of honor at the Spring Lake Yacht club and later did some fishing. They returned home Sunday morning.

Sally Brooks Honored At Parties in Bloomfield

Honoring Miss Sally Brooks, of Palmer Woods, whose wedding will take place Friday evening, several parties have been given this week by some of her classmates at Kingswood School, Sally Bunter was hostess at a "brunch" Monday noon at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. This was followed in the afternoon by a tea in the home of Barbara Shull. On Tuesday Mary Louise Koen entertained a luncheon and bridge party at the home of Mrs. J. H. Atkin on Squared road. Jean Murray, of Lowell court, gave the Spunster Dinner for sixteen guests Wednesday evening.

Pine Lake Club Has First Bridge-Luncheon of Season

Pine Lake Country Club will have its first Ladies' Bridge Luncheon on Wednesday, June 25. Mrs. William W. Stevens and Mrs. E. S. Stultz are the party committees. Reservations for the afternoon will be to Mrs. J. M. Drevant. Mrs. Frank W. Shink, Mrs. Draper Allen, Mrs. Clout L. Gray, Mrs. Harold F. Sawyer and Mrs. David J. Hackett. Early reservations include a party being held on by Mrs. Harry D. Wise, of Williamsburg road. Her guests will be Mrs. T. H. Whitcomb, Mrs. Edward Brown, Mrs. W. E. Mosher, and Mrs. T. F. McDonald.
