

There are unchanging, dependable laws that govern every form of life upon which he can lay claim to these good laws lives the fuller, the happier life.

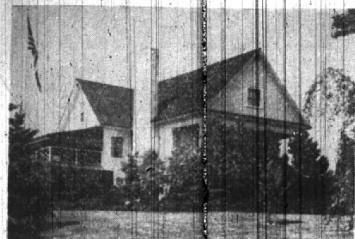

SIXTY-FOURTH YEAR—NO. 53

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1941

PART TWO

Virginia Colonial

In a Perfect Setting

In the quiet charm of Franklin Village this beautiful home offers more of country life at its best than can be found elsewhere in our suburbs.

Designed for comfortable living, the house is in sparkling condition; from the tall white columns of the entrance portico to the well planned kitchen, living and dining rooms, library and breeze-swept screened living porch permit every kind of family or guest entertainment. 5 bedrooms and 3 baths plus a grand screened sleeping porch fill the second floor; on the third is a well equipped billiard room and in the basement a colorful recreation room and complete bar.

Tennis court, formal and perennial gardens, sweeping lawns, magnificent evergreens and deciduous plantings, pools and walks make outdoor life a pleasure. And, to top it all, a blue gem in an eserald setting: a swimming pool set in the lawn—for the final touch of summer enjoyment.

A greenhouse for the ardent gardener and a car garage with servants' quarters above make this property as complete as one could wish. You'll want to see it—there's nothing else quite like it. Just call 1212.

MAX BROOK INC.
REALTORS
ESTABLISHED 1885

ELMHURST 6530

BIRMINGHAM 1212

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE
3560 Roland Drive

This dignified home with large spacious rooms is on a large, well landscaped lot. Only one block from excellent schools.

4 bdr., 2 bath, 4 baths, powder room, screened terrace overlooking garden.

Priced far below cost—shown by appointment.

PHONE BIRMINGHAM 258

Their rent-money is buying their modern,
low-cost
home financing plan

AND THEY WILL LIVE
HAPPILY EVER AFTER

Investigate Our Mortgage Plan
Before You Build Your New Home

BIRMINGHAM FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASS'N

243 East Maple Ave.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Over at Barnum School playground, things got under way Monday morning, but one of the leaders, Miss Shirley Smith, 120 Pierced Street, was scratched here. "I was hit in the eye and thrown by a horse," said she.

The story is this: Miss Smith, Winnie Watkins, Fayle Anderson, Shirley Bushy, Madeline Paine and Mrs. Anna L. Hinton were at Saturday morning at Square Lake.

The horses were skittish that morning, and Fayle and Winnie were trying to force them, with Fayle striking her head, and Winnie remounted and rode off.

Before long, her steed and that of Shirley Bushy bolted away, and despite desperate efforts to stop them, the horses refused to stop and on reaching Rockford road, they slipped on the pavement, and then went into the water. Shirley stayed off, and was taken to St. Joseph Hospital suffering from a slight concussion. She's home now. Far be it for this Wandering Jew to discuss the matter of horsemanship; we too, are content to blazon the horse's name.

It was first reported that A. R. Gandy, 5100 Woodward, had been sent to London on OPM business. Now, according to Pearson and Allen, the columnists, Mr. Gandy is enroute to Egypt to study the performance of the new U.S. 4-ton, light tanks in Syria and

1423 Buckingham

A Family Home convenient to Adams School

Library and living room each with fireplace. Breakfast room, pantry and kitchen and 1st floor laundry. 6 bedrooms, 3 baths, front and rear stairs. 3 car garage, over 34 acre in site.

A most liveable home at only $13,500

Call 1250

Walsh, James & Wasey Co.
DETROIT-BIRMINGHAM
BLOOMFIELD HILLS
Main Office

LAPER & ROCHESTER •
NORTH MICHIGAN LAKE
Pembroke Bluff

BUILT TO LAST A LIFETIME

A home in the trees with artistically landscaped lot. Solid masonry construction—baked tile roof. A 1 bedroom home with other features such as: Recreation room... panelled Den... Breakfast room with bay. May take smaller home in trade.

DO YOU WANT A FARM?

275 Acres in good state of cultivation... corn, wheat, oats, hay and alfalfa. Pasture with water... timber. Modern basement Dairy Barn. Good house near thrifty town. Real investment at $35.00 per acre.

DAVID FITCH

139 West Maple Telephone 1234

NEW HOME at 1530 WEBSTER STREET recently sold to Mr. and Mrs. Alonso Haimbaugh

This is one of a number of new houses recently constructed in this section.

All are thoroughly modern, well insulated and sold under FHA terms.

Inspection invited!

E. S. JACKSON & CO.

592 So. Woodward Phone Birmingham 687 or 2561
Our Office is Open Evenings

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Over at Barnum School playground, things got under way Monday morning, but one of the leaders, Miss Shirley Smith, 120 Pierced Street, was scratched here. "I was hit in the eye and thrown by a horse," said she.

The story is this: Miss Smith, Winnie Watkins, Fayle Anderson, Shirley Bushy, Madeline Paine and Mrs. Anna L. Hinton were at Saturday morning at Square Lake.

The horses were skittish that morning, and Fayle and Winnie were trying to force them, with Fayle striking her head, and Winnie remounted and rode off.

Before long, her steed and that of Shirley Bushy bolted away, and despite desperate efforts to stop them, the horses refused to stop and on reaching Rockford road, they slipped on the pavement, and then went into the water. Shirley stayed off, and was taken to St. Joseph Hospital suffering from a slight concussion. She's home now. Far be it for this Wandering Jew to discuss the matter of horsemanship; we too, are content to blazon the horse's name.

It was first reported that A. R. Gandy, 5100 Woodward, had been sent to London on OPM business. Now, according to Pearson and Allen, the columnists, Mr. Gandy is enroute to Egypt to study the performance of the new U.S. 4-ton, light tanks in Syria and

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course yesterday. Playing with John H. Hinton, Billie Hinton, he aced the 200-yard No. 2 hole using a spoon. (To non-golfers, that's a wooden-headed club similar to a driver but having more loft to the ball.) Playing more than 100 yards from the tee, Mr. and Mrs. Tegardin of 426 Albany, Ferndale, who were leaving the green, Sibley said, "38, or four above par for the nine holes."

Correction: Credit belongs to the Williams Beauty Salon for providing Birmingham with its fine air conditioned hairdresser's shop.

A Hamilton street resident suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to turn off her gas

on four above par for the nine months.

Congratulations to James Syrup, the confectioner, for his one-in-one at Springdale Park golf course