

St. Dunstan's Guild Garden Center Tour on June 14, 15 Members Are Busy Arouses Much Interest Locally At Last Rehearsals

Members of St. Dunstan's Guild seem to be speaking a language which is heard talking in terms of Fish-Tub, Pook-Bah, Yum-Yum and the like. However such terms are not indicative of personality difficulties, rather they mean that last minute preparation for "The Mikado" which will take place June 11, 12, and 14, are keeping Guild members well occupied.

Wednesday and Thursday performances will be held in the Greek Theatre and the Saturday night play is scheduled for the auditorium at Cranbrook. Evidently the Dunstan Guild roster is of a superstitious nature for mention of any activity on Friday, June 12, is plainly omitted. Vernon R. Kellett of Cranbrook, the well-known "Mikado," an amusing comic opera of the Gilbert and Sullivan type.

Among the highlights of the play will be the pomp and fanfare accompanying the entrance of the Mikado, played by Hugh Davis. The scene between Kik-Ko, Lord High Executioner played by Fred Nicholson, and Katisha Rose Edith, with the famous song of "I'll be something to be looked forward to as a victim R. Kellett's portrayal of Jappa, pompous official of "Nippon."

Another outstanding scene will be that of Carleton Scott, an English Poet, the wandering minstrel who is in love with Yum-Yum, done by Ruth Nickerson singing the famous kissing song. A 24-piece orchestra drawn largely from local talent and under the direction of Philip Curtis, will accompany throughout the performance.

Tickets may be had by calling Hubert Davis or from the Sales Electric store.

Tuliptime is a roundelay of fragrance inspired by the gay, valiant spirit of spring—the perfume of all the flowers of spring—blended by HARRIET HUBBARD AYER with the same inimitable genius that captured Pink Clover from America's fields and meadows. Tuliptime is the true fragrance of spring, of courage, of love, of joy of living.
