

Mrs. Ralph Polk, Sr., Head of New Bloomfield Red Cross Unit

New Group Will Hold Meetings At St. Hugo of the Hills School

Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Sr., of Long Point road, was named general chairman of the new Red Cross unit which was organized Tuesday afternoon at the St. Hugo of the Hills Church School. The new unit came about as the result of the efforts of Mrs. Elliott Slocum Nichols, of East Long Lake road.

Work to be done by the unit will consist principally of sewing, although there will be some surgical dressings and knitting as well. The first regular meeting is scheduled to be held at the school on Monday, June 16. At that time it will be decided which day of the week will be devoted to Red Cross work, and meetings will be held weekly thereafter.

Mrs. Noble, from Pontiac Red Cross, was principal speaker at the Tuesday meeting. Women attending were Mrs. L. O. Turner, Mrs. J. R. MacDougal, Mrs. J. E. Moore, Mrs. J. J. Redmond, Mrs. Edward Christie, Mrs. J. W. Wendell, Mrs. C. L. Wingham, Mrs. Fred Hammond, Mrs. George Oliver, Mrs. Owen Smith, Mrs. Otto Huk, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Sr., Mrs. Elliott S. Nichols, and Mrs. Alexander Tolboff.

It is expected that there will be many more workers at the meeting on June 16. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Polk, or Mrs. Tolboff, or should jump ahead the first meeting.

Wanda Minton Wed To H. Kingsbury Thursday Evening

Wearing a white satin gown, made of big leg-of-mutton sleeves, full skirt and long wide boogie, Wanda Minton became the bride of Howard Kingsbury at 8 o'clock last Thursday evening in the first Presbyterian Church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the service.

Mrs. Minton wore a veil of finger-length and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, tied with long white streamers. Pink marquisette, fashioned into a full skirt and fitted bodice was the dress chosen by Gloria Malcolm, the bridesmaid. She wore a small hat made of fresh flowers and her bouquet was made up of pink carnations and blue stock.

Mrs. Robert Schaeffer was her sister's matron of honor and was gowned in ice blue satin, fashioned after the gown of Miss Malton. She also wore a small hat of fresh flowers and carried a pink and blue bouquet.

A single blue cake came up from Toledo, Ohio, to be Mr. Kingsbury's best man, and the ushers were Charles Feltus, of Birmingham, and Larry Schultz, of Pontiac. John Martin gave his daughter in marriage.

Following the ceremony a reception for 80 guests was held at the Community House. The young couple are making their home in Birmingham.

"DAD"

It's HIS Day... on Sunday, June 13th—Sunday after next! Don't overlook it.

Remember that he's a grand person; and that in his selfless and modest way he'll probably not be exactly expecting much as a remembrance on Father's Day! But that's just when it's a genuinely satisfying pleasure to GIVE HIM SOMETHING.

Make it a real Gift—a LaBelle Gift! And then watch his eyes sparkle in sheer gratefulness.
