

Don't let the international situation "get you down." Plan to enjoy some quiet leisure time at home in your garden; relax with a good book; enjoy your family.

The Birmingham Eccentric

SIXTY-FOURTH YEAR—NO. 10

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1941

PART TWO

The Manor House

On a Quiet Country Road

Mellowed with time, this grand old house has a charm and atmosphere unequalled in the Birmingham area. Only 3 miles from the village limits, it is delightfully secluded, yet most conveniently accessible.

Well planned for either large or small family, automatic heat and newly remodeled bathrooms make it as modern as today. High ceilings, full length windows, wide-board floors, deep window detail and curving stair recall the past. Truly livable and completely charming—oldage and youth combined at their best.

Mammillaria pines, clms and firs shelter it; old fashioned perennial gardens, fruit and shade trees give it a matchless setting. The barn has 2 box stalls (all room for more) and 1 acres allow room for grazing, gardening and out-of-door recreation.

The neighborhood is the finest—you'll want to know the neighbors.
