

Bits of Birmingham

According to the Lapeer County Press, "Ghosts" are the latest addition to the James Beresford Tyrone Farms near Metamora. Set on the farm of the poet, Carl Sandburg and will be the beginning of a large herd. The milk sells for 30¢ a quart and most of it is sold in Birmingham. Manager George Greenley reports that later they expect to start selling it in Lapeer. It is an excellent food for babies and persons with weak stomachs."

Another coat has been taken from the check-room of the Community House, the last victim being Mrs. William W. Willets, 44 Grove street, Highland Park. The coat was stolen, and recovered Sunday at Flint.

It's Willis, not Willets, according to the best information this column has received following our query week before last. (We asked that the coat be returned from the cleaners; there's no use spelling the name of a street two ways.)

Mrs. George W. Willets, 1222 Portland avenue, informed this writer that it was her son's hand's great-grandfather, Elijah Willets, who was Birmingham's first settler. In the early 1800's, Elijah and his wife, Mary, with John Hunter and John Hamilton, Hunter and Hamilton settled in Bloomingfield Hills, she said, and Willets built a farm house on the site of the Old Colony Inn, which is now, next to the Economic office, and there began cultivating his 160 acres.

Mrs. Roy Brown corroborated that the coat was taken Tuesday night. Mrs. W. G. Jones, tellingly, pointed to a sign telling people just to lean over the fountain and that the water would come on without turning a handle.

We noticed Ralph Chapman, the bonding imprisor, at the theatre opening. Fourteen years ago he managed the Birmingham Theatre when it was started.

Ralph Wilson is celebrating 18 years in the drug business here.

Michigan Engineering Society held its annual dinner meeting at the Community House with 105 present. The Michigan section of the American Society of Civil Engineers were guests.

Some one at the Post Office must have had a bad night or something. Wednesday morning the flag was flying upside down. A call was made to the Mariner organization, saw the mistake and called attention to it.

Smith St. Group Asks Improvement

Improvement of Smith street was asked by residents in a petition filed with the City Commission by Mrs. Anna E. H. Hertiette.

Carb and gutter and a blacktop surface was asked. The cost, which would probably be $1,55 or $1,60 a foot, was to be paid for by the City Manager, Donald C. Egbert, who might be excessive for the 20 vacant lots which adjoin the street. He said, "An assessment of 10 cents per cent of the assessed value of a parcel, according to state law.

The Commission passed a resolution calling for a committee of the post and several weeks it is likely that the people affected will be called in for a hearing.

Another Academy-award winner is coming to town Saturday. James Stewart will be here with Hedy Lamarr in the new comedy, "Come Live With Me."

The A. D. Jardines, who for the past 21 years have been residents of this city, have sold their home and are moving to a spacious 15-room home in the country on 10th Mile road west, near Middlebelt road, Farmington township. The grounds comprise three acres so Mr. Jardine

Most popular of the towers for detection of forest fires in Chippenham, Massachusetts is the one on Mount Monadnock. More than 1,000 visitors climbed to the top of it, while 11 other fire towers in the area drew only 500 callers.
