

Tireless Players Start Another Show, Set for March 21

Two Playlets, Music Interlude Are on Program

Never letting the grass grow under their feet, those energetic players scarcely finish with one production before they have rehearsals for another show underway. Next on their program will be two one-act plays, which they will present Friday evening, March 21, at the playhouse, with a musical interlude between acts and the usual Afterglow to ring down the curtain.

It is a misstatement to say the players will give two plays, however, as one vehicle is to be only the second act of a play called "The Torch Bearer" by George Kelly, a highly humorous bit. Co-directors of this piece are Mrs. W. Carleton Scott and Mrs. Robert J. Johnston. Mrs. Ada Moore is in charge of lines and Dr. James Howell, of properties.

The cast includes Mrs. George M. Dweley, Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Fred D. Farrar, D. S. Hastings, George D. Miller, Earle Wilson, Jr., Miss Gladys Rogers,

U. of M. Alumnae Offer Style Hints At Benefit Party

If anyone is in doubt as to what the well-dressed femme will wear this spring, a visit to the annual benefit Fashion Show, to be staged next Tuesday at the Community

Club, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Manuscript club Friday afternoon, at the Community House. Her topic will be "Streamlining the Story." Following Miss Avery's talk, there will be literary criticisms of manuscripts submitted by Miss Dorothea York of Royal Oak.

Tea will be served at the conclusion of the meeting, with Mrs. Sallia York, of Oshtemo, serving as hostess.

Hortense Smith Weds Kansan At Candlelight Rites

Miss Hortense Smith, daughter of the late Mrs. J. C. Smith, of Piquette street, and Roy Lane Rogers of Wichita, Kans., were united in matrimony at candlelight ceremonies in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. W. H. H. H. officiating, at 8 o'clock last evening. The ceremony before a bank of eucalyptus ferns and palm arrangements, with a display of flowers and white snapdragons and carnations, was a most impressive affair. The bride wore a gown of white satin, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. W. H. H. H. of the First Presbyterian church. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. J. C. Smith. The ceremony was a most impressive affair.

Lecture on Antiques Set For Friday

An unusual opportunity to learn how famous old English homes and castles were decorated will be offered residents of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills on Friday afternoon, March 13, at 2:30 o'clock, J. Albert Bennett, English authority on antique furniture, will describe and show his collection of lantern slides depicting English homes and furnishings of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, at the Community House. Mr. Bennett has lectured in many cities and towns in the United States and Canada. Arrangements for the lecture have been made by Mrs. Dudley Blakely. Mrs. Clark H. Purcell is chairman of the ticket committee. Proceeds will be donated to the British War Relief society.

Tea Compliments Dr. Katharine Greene
DR. KATHARINE G. GREENE, director of the Sherwood school, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given at the Birmingham Community House Friday afternoon. The affair for Dr. Greene was given by the mothers of various pupils at the school. Mrs. William E. Easley and Mrs. Clyde E. Patton presided at the tea table. Mrs. Norman Schwartzart and Mrs. K. M. Plurman of Royal Oak were co-chairmen.
