

Bits of Birmingham

The Birmingham Eccentric's... work on the model railroad he... Loren T. Robinson is receiving... Howard Pugh feels pretty good... Royce L. Berry, 345 Arlington... Police were called Sunday to... There has been plenty of excitement... Smoke disclosed Monday night... Electric motors certainly play... The Grand Truck Western rail... Boys building a bonfire at the... Mrs. Aubrey C. Flood, 431... Thomas Harle, organist at the... A. J. Underwood confesses that...

But It's True

HIGHEST and LOWEST BASKETBALL SCORES... THE THINS BOTH... ON FEB. 3, 1925, BOSTON U.S. OF INDIANA DEFEATED FRANKLIN BY A COUNT OF 177-0... George Pierre, born in Pittsburgh, served with the American Army in France...

Arrest Youth, 17, In Stolen Car Case

Four recent automobile thefts were cleared up Saturday with the arrest of Lyle Graves, 17 years old, 68 South Westway avenue... Police charge that Graves stole the car of C. Thorne Van Dusen... According to police, William Green, Graves admitted also taking and driving for a week the car of C. Thorne Van Dusen...

From the Women's Angle

By KATHERINE W. GEORGE... Here you come to Boston from an... After years of tramping about our... You would think that a woman who... But it is not the woman who is... The double bed was out of the... The room almost to capacity... Mrs. George... Mrs. George... Mrs. George...

How Man With New Idea Became U. S. King of Cress

William E. Dennis, 48, of Martinsburg, W. Va., farm of C. E. Dennis, inset, the "king of cress"... But even after he obtained the seed, he often failed to get a crop... By experiment he learned that cress could be grown successfully only in fresh water systems that had certain chemical properties... C. E. DENNIS was raised to be a cress expert... Dennis, Sr., started experiments in raising water cress... DENNIS decided it was time to get scientific and plant regular crops of cress... Fluct difficulty was to get seed...

Nephew of Resident Killed In Crash

Mrs. William H. Schack, of Birmingham, is receiving word of the death of her nephew, Frank Schack, of Brownsville, Tex., in an automobile accident Sunday at Fort Rucker, Ky... Mrs. Schack's wife was badly injured in the crash... Mrs. Schack's husband, William H. Schack, is a resident of Birmingham... Mrs. Schack's husband, William H. Schack, is a resident of Birmingham... Mrs. Schack's husband, William H. Schack, is a resident of Birmingham...

Obituary

Mrs. Ruth Raymond Ives... Mrs. Ruth Raymond Ives, wife of Mr. Ives, of 2000 1/2th Avenue, died Tuesday morning of pneumonia at Harper hospital... Mrs. Fanny Beaulieu... Mrs. Fanny Beaulieu, wife of Mr. Beaulieu, died last Thursday in a hospital... Mrs. Alice Tappan Dunn... Mrs. Alice Tappan Dunn, who had many friends in Birmingham, died last Thursday in a hospital...

Girl Flies From Peru for Operation

With a bolt in her lung, swallowed while playing with toys, Patricia Norberg, 5, was flown from Lima, Peru, to Philadelphia for a successful operation... Mrs. Elizabeth Norberg, pictured above with Patricia, accompanied the child on the flight...

Workmen pluck leaves of watercress at Martinsburg, W. Va., farm of C. E. Dennis, inset, the "king of cress"

Workmen pluck leaves of watercress at Martinsburg, W. Va., farm of C. E. Dennis, inset, the "king of cress"... But even after he obtained the seed, he often failed to get a crop... By experiment he learned that cress could be grown successfully only in fresh water systems that had certain chemical properties... C. E. DENNIS was raised to be a cress expert... Dennis, Sr., started experiments in raising water cress... DENNIS decided it was time to get scientific and plant regular crops of cress... Fluct difficulty was to get seed...

Special Sale! Swift's Premium Smoked Tongues 28¢ lb.

See Our Ad, Page 8, Part I... Mrs. Alice Tappan Dunn, who had many friends in Birmingham, died last Thursday in a hospital...

NEW ADVANCED DESIGN PHILCO REFRIGERATOR... LOOK of These Features! CONSERVATOR... FROZEN FOOD COMPARTMENT... BOTH DRY COLD AND MOIST COLD... PHILCO SUPER POWER SYSTEM... EASY TERMS SERIAL'S AUTO SUPPLY

Girl Flies From Peru for Operation... With a bolt in her lung, swallowed while playing with toys, Patricia Norberg, 5, was flown from Lima, Peru, to Philadelphia for a successful operation... Mrs. Elizabeth Norberg, pictured above with Patricia, accompanied the child on the flight...

Going over big with buyers of low-priced cars... Pontiac... Streamliner "Torpedo" Six Sedan Coupe $923*... $828... Pontiac Motor Car Division... BIRMINGHAM BRANCH