Birmingham Basketeers Start Tournament Games Friday

Birmingham cagers will seek their first win in the district tournament Friday night when they oppose East Detroit High School at Roseville.

Earlier in the season the Maple Leafs trounced the East Siders by a score of 40-19.

There are four teams in the Class B District tourney, Roseville, Berkley, East Detroit and Birmingham. The winner of the Roseville-Berkley game will play the winner of the East Detroit-Birmingham game Saturday night for the district championship.

Clawson Defeated In Exciting Game

By ALLEN JONES

No game could have been better for the Maples before the district matches than the Clawson-Birmingham game at Baldwin gym last Friday night in which the Maples defeated Clawson 37-32, despite the valiant efforts of Clawson's rangy center, Creeve.

The game got away to a fast start and though the Clawson crew found itself hampered in use of the fast break, it managed to drop six quick points before the Maples could collect themselves.

However, Birmingham managed to gain the lead before the 11-10 close of the first quarter.

In the second quarter Clawson once more wrested the lead from the Maroons and the Leafs were forced to freeze the ball until the Clawson defense cracked, allowing the Maples to gain at the half 17-15.

The slow start of the second half proved a false portent of what was to come. Olson and Therrian in turn held Creeve, Clawson high point man, in close check, limiting him but one point the remainder of the evening, while Gilbert chalked up eight badly-needed points to provide a 31-25 score at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth frame showed the strain upon the Clawson boys as they made a last desperate attempt to win the game by shooting wildly from all over the floor.

With barely minutes left to play Clawson advanced from 26 to 32 points and forced the Maples to the floor in order to maintain their scanty lead.

The game ended 37-32 in favor of the Maples, a close, exciting finish.

Scoring honors for the night belonged to Clawson's Creeve, who chalked up a total of 13 points. Gilbert took second highest with a top of 10 points.

Flag Stunt Used In Last Friday's Basketball Game

The coaches and players of Clawson and Birmingham were honored by an interesting program last Friday night in Baldwin High School gym.

The exercise, sponsored by Baldwin Pleasures and given between the second team game and the first team game, started when the lights were dimmed and a spotlight was thrown on the American flag. The Baldwin High School band played the national anthem and the spectators stood and sang.

The spotlight was then turned on Bill Roberts, who introduced players and coaches over the public address system.

Players and the opposing team members were introduced in pairs according to the position they played.

The spotlight was handled by Bill Haeckner and Bill McCall while the public address system was operated by Bartland Smith.

'Tish' Cast Finds Mistakes Costly

The cast of "Tish," the all-school play to be given March 20-21, in the Baldwin High School auditorium, recently held a novel rehearsal at the home of Miss Ruth Hall, dramatics coach.

It was called a "Penny Fine Practice" because each time any member of the cast missed his lines, he was compelled to pay a penny to the pot. The fact that only half as much money was collected as in similar parties of other years proved that the cast is in earnest and "Tish" will undoubtedly be fine entertainment.

The only things that were enjoyed more than the rehearsal were the ice cream and cake, and the songs, dances, and pantomimes staged by Anne Savage, who will play the title role in the forthcoming play.

RESULTS!

The surprise assembly given this morning was a direct result of a letter signed "Olga" appearing in the Feb. 13 issue of "The Highlander" which criticized the reception on assembly programs and which received prompt attention from the Assembly Club and Miss Dorothy Aiken, adviser.

The best way to get to the top is by being the best man at the bottom.—V. H. Jones.

Reserve Basketeers Swamp Clawson

By HUGH MACK

Birmingham and Clawson reserve cagers met here last Friday night in a free-scoring contest with Baldwin winning 53-15.

In a game that looked in the first few minutes of play as if it were going to be a close contest, Baldwin swamped Clawson by nearly quadrupling the score.

The Clawson team had a good zone defense and played a good passing game, but the downfall came because of a lack of shooting ability.

The Maple Leafs started out with a bang in the first quarter, making 14 points to Clawson's two. Although they piled up a terrific score, every point was well earned. The Baldwin boys just couldn't seem to miss the basket. Their passing was good, their floor work was good, and their defense was good.

Dave Kennedy's passing was excellent. All during the game he kept slipping the ball into well guarded men under the basket who immediately made two more points for Baldwin.

Birmingham had made 25 points to Clawson's 7 when the gun barked at half-time. The game moved so fast that the scorer had a hard time keeping the count straight.

Birmingham used 13 men and each played almost the same amount of time. Clawson substituted almost as frequently, using 11 men.

High point honors went to Corson who scored 14 points with Hopkins and Dahlquist right behind him with 10 points apiece.

Clawson made five for 15 or 33 per cent of its free throws while Birmingham made nine out of 12 for 75 per cent.

The Clawson high point man was Biwen with five points, he was also a good defensive man.

It was an exciting game because of the number of points made. Birmingham made 1.7 points a minute which kept everyone on the edge of his seat and Clawson played well, fighting up to the last minute but failing to cash in on baskets attempted.

BALDWIN HI-LIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS

March really came in like a lion. We all hope it goes out like a lamb.

Blowing in with the month are many birthdays. Those we've heard of are:

Kitty Keller's, March 3, was celebrated with a surprise party. Her two cousins, Alcene and Martha Barby, from Kentucky, were among her guests.

Mary Ann Mead and Joann Taylor had a bridge luncheon at the home of Mary Ann, in honor of their birthdays, March 2.

Nancy DaLee's birthday is March 15 and Maggie Newell's March 16. Many happy returns.

The "Clock Watch" dance March 8, will follow a novel theme. Factory scenes, WPA projects and fusion ideas will be carried out.

Remember St. Patrick's Day, March 17. No school then because of institute for the teachers.

3 Baldwin Girls In Style Show

Three Baldwin girls, Betty Lou Hock, Doreen Tapping and Helen Rhonds, were chosen by Eleanor Miller to act as guest models in a Detroit department store's high school shop Saturday, March 1, for "Birmingham Day."

The girls modeled a variety of clothes including suits, dresses and formals.

Two half-hour shows were staged. During intermission the girls walked around the shop in the outfits they found most to their liking, answering any questions customers asked.

Soft music provided a most festive background for the style show.

The snail has 14,175 teeth, a most peculiar set. They are arranged in 135 rows of 105 each. The actual count was made by a British dentist.

Glawson Oil Company's Alumni basketball team defeated Hill's Shoe Renovating 37-32 here last night in the first game of a double-header basketball tournament.

It's an interesting thing to note that Roseville has not been beaten on its own floor this year. If Birmingham meets Roseville it will have to play on the latter's home floor.

Basketball Club Teaches Principles

At the start of the spring term a basketball club was formed to help those interested with their problems concerning the sport.

The club, which meets during the activity period with advisers Franklin Whaley, high school coach, discusses any problems that may arise and members are given a perplexing problem to work out during the week.

Lately Coach has been preparing a "radio" program for younger boys. In this program the boys hope to be able to teach the younger ones the fundamentals of the game by explaining the art of catching, passing, dribbling, guarding, and many other phases of basketball.
