

AAUW Wins National Recognition For Work with the Saturday Club

Saturday Club, the annual project carried on by members of the Birmingham Branch of AAUW, was one of four projects to receive honorable mention at the National convention in Cincinnati last week. The exhibit representing the work of the Saturday Club was made up of four charts which Mrs. George Mullin, Mrs. William E. Essery, and Mrs. Ralph Schell had prepared.

Mrs. E. H. Whitlatch, Mrs. Harriet N. Grober, and Mrs. Hugh D. McLessee, president, attended the National AAUW convention. Spoken throughout all the meetings, according to Mrs. McLessee, was the part women will of a necessity, have to play before the present world crisis has subsided, and during the reconstruction period following the war.

The whole convention was centered around national defense and the European situation. Dr. Paul Van Zeland, former Minister of Belgium gave an "old record" address, saying that he has complete confidence in the belief that Belgium will again be restored as a free and independent nation. He also stated that the food situation in Belgium was so good that even Belgians would accept that week in Belgium and Germany in order to get food. He advocated a High W. Hitchcock, and Mrs. plan whereby neutral nations could
