

Barbara S. Booth And Anne Nichols Are June Debs

Again this year they will be debutante parties for Birmingham girls. Both Anne Nichols, daughter of the Hills, and Barbara S. Booth, daughter of the Warrens, will come out this year. No date has been set for Barbara's debut yet as she is still away at school. Anne will make her bow to society on June 18, at a dinner given at the Grassy Point Country Club. The party will be just for debutantes. Anne is living at home and attends the University of Detroit.

Kingswood Holds Junior Horse Show

Kingswood School for Girls sponsored a horse show Wednesday afternoon at the Outlands Stables on the 14-Mile road. The show was open to boys and girls who had passed their 14th birthday, and were not more than 18 years old. Gloria Ganiard, Judy Eason, and Pat Newhall were among the Kingwood girls who took part in the show. Martha Sackel, who won on her horse Sooin, Shirley Wallace rode Bayfield, Idell Lutzman had Blue Koen, Patsy Proise was riding Key Note, Sally Booth was there with Silver-Crest, Mary Robbels rode My Pal, Karin Larson and Patricia Kay, Bette Strong was riding Crystal, Katie Wallace rode Gray Dawn, Sally Ecklund had Skipper, Betty Le Hamilton had Queenie, Virginia Carterlight was riding with Prince, and Doris Chapman was riding Mr. Brown. Other Woodfield Hills girls who entered were Mary Beresford, Patricia Compton on Soony Boy, and Sue Tucker with Zebbie.

Seek Lost Gold

Southwestern Michigan has two "buried treasure" legends which constantly intrigue visiting tourists. Often they may be seen searching the lake near Indian Lake, or the St. Joseph river, for the lost Indian gold.

"Senior Serenade" Is Last of Saturday Night Dances

The "Senior Serenade" this Saturday night will be the last Saturday Night Dance sponsored by the Community House this year. An extra large turnout is hoped for by the committee in charge. Mary Jane Tippett is chairman of the committee and assisting her are Jerry Hart, the William Martine, and the Carl Sunberg.

Miss Hester Giles to Wed New Yorker
