Werner Addresses St. James Club

Eduard Werner, for many years conductor of the orchestra at the Michigan and Capital Theatres and former Musical Director at WCCZ, addressed the Young Married Couples' Club dinner at St. James Church Tuesday night.

Mr. Werner reminisced about his experience in the theatre and told, in an intensely interesting manner, of his many friendships with such well known characters of the radio, screen and stage as Mary Pickford, Will Rogers, John Burns, Victor Herbert, Paul Whiteman, Wayne King, Benny Goodman, Guy Lombardo, Fred Astaire, André Kostelanetz and many others.

Mr. Werner, an accomplished speaker, told the group something with respect to how they happened to get into their chosen vocations and he told his listeners about the individual style of the hand that dealt the cards. He explained that he had a "game" that of listening to the little musical effects and arrangements of an orchestra and could hear the individual style of the hand that dealt the cards. when he noticed the woman walking toward him. He turned out but the truck struck the woman, who he got to her side was unconscious.

She was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ball's Ambulance.

Her injuries contained $13,500. Mrs. Gifford was the driver of the truck and the driver's card.

"I saw her," said the driver, "I saw her."

PRUDENVILLE
Reporting the best fish spawning conditions on Houghton Lake in several years. W. F. Carbine of the conservation department's institute for fisheries research credits better spawning conditions will be good northern lake catches on the lake for several years after this season's better bottom siltation. Anglers may begin catching the fish that grow from this year's fry in two or three years. Carbine says: "With the water high, there had unusual opportunities to spawn along the shores of Houghton Lake. These marshes are not expected to dry up until Houghton Lake drops below one foot below normal level before the pile fry have had a chance to reach the lake."
