Hills Garden Club English-Robinson Nuptial Vows To Visit Sly Estate Sifen at Garden Ceremony

Members of the Bloomfield Hills Branch of the National Funt and Garden Club will be guests at the Sly home, on West Maple road, Monday, June 2, at 2 p. m. The well known Irish and other gardens will be opened during the afternoon for the pleasure of the members.

Mrs. Lee E. Holtz, Jr., and Mrs. Louis Kay will assist the hostess by presiding over the table.

An informal flower show is to be the feature of the regular meeting. Among those who are already busy on floral arrangements for the show are Mrs. Lewis Kahn, Mrs. Walter Thompson, Mrs. A. P. French, Fred Weed, Mrs. George C. Booth, Mrs. Fred Brock, Mrs. Frank E. Parker, Mrs. Donald D. James, and Mrs. George Storer.

Others include Mrs. W. G. Leeshen, Mrs. Earl Thompson, Mrs. F. D. Winn, Mrs. Perry K. Land, Mrs. John List, Mrs. W. J. Beckman, Mrs. John L. Shaw, Mrs. G. W. Linton, Mrs. Howard Thint, and Mrs. Carlotta Fox.

Before an improvised altar in the formal gardens of the English estate, Frances English became the bride of Frederick Lloyd Robinson last Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan read the services.

Post-ceremony, lunch and cards were served on the terrace overlooking from the French Doors of the living room, down which the bride and groom, accompanied by Mrs. English, and her only attendant, Hannah Hornbrook, walked to the altar. The bridal gown was of antique ivory satin, with an over skirt of white marquisette. A round yoke, of marquisette, topped the tight fitting satin bodice, and the long tight satin sleeves ended in points over her wrists.

A terra of orange blossoms held the finger-tip illusion veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and stephanotis.

Miss Hornbrook wore a flaming dress of rose chiffon made with a full skirt and tight bodice, while a starched broom bow of lace framed her headpiece. She carried the delphinium and London milk carnations. Mary and Frances, of Washington, young bridesmaids of the bride, who held ribbons forming the aisle to the altar, wore the colored organza dresses. Edward T. Kelley, of Detroit, and Miss Barr, of Washington, were the ushers. Frederick R. Robinson was his son's best man.

Mrs. Robinson chose a gown of green and white printed chiffon for her son's wedding and Mrs. English wore gray-blue lace and a spray of orchids at her shoulder.

The young couple left for an eastern motor trip following the reception. Mrs. Robinson was wearing an ensemble of sheer wool of rose and cocoa beige. Her accessories were dark brown. They plan to live in Birmingham until their new home is completed.

It's been a great four years and now they're going to GRADUATE

Be certain to mark the occasion for those friends of yours who are in the Class of '41.

Do so with a La Belle Gift! Jewelry, perfume or a bodice set for the girl graduate; something in fine leather or other very personal gift for the boy; stationery, for either the girl or boy—just to mention a few of our many gifts.

And don't forget to wish them success with a Norcross Graduation Greeting Card!

IT'S ABOUT TIME!

AFTER all, every month brings it's Father's Day in a way (uno, on the 10th, when all the bills come due)!

So it's about time for another genuine FATHER'S DAY, that annual occasion when we take time out to let him know that he's a grand person; that day, exclusively his, which the whole nation now sets aside once a year to recognize DAD, and all he means to us!

This year, Father's Day is June 15th

and there's no finer way of showing your esteem for him than to manifest your thoughts with a La Belle Gift. We have, for example, the kind of fine leather accessories he will like (and like even more when they gradually age); masculine looking book ends; books on current affairs... on the European and World situation; dictionaries and other books of fact; an atlas or a globe if he's an "arm-chair general"—all of these, of course, are only a few of our many gifts for men. Moreover, we have just the proper Norcross Greeting Cards with which to wish him well.
