

Superbly Built

On Bloomfield's Fairways

The gently rolling grounds of Bloomfield Hills Country Club are an ever beautiful vista from the spacious rooms of this charming residence. Overlooking No. 3 fairway, the view is one of rolling hills and valleys, trees and green—beauty everywhere.

From the high ceilinged, book-shelved and richly paneled library through the gracious living and dining rooms, the tiled kitchen and service wing to the charmingly appointed bedrooms and colorful tiled baths, this is a home to be owned with pride. Finely built, mechanically perfect, this is truly a magnificent home in a superbly beautiful country setting.

An extra garage with quarters above, a swimming pool, formal garden with fountain pool, sweeping lawn and stately trees enhance the beauty and add to enjoyment. Here is everything to make country life enjoyable for you. Plan now to see it—the first to take advantage of this exceptional opportunity.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham has a bee expert, Yesiree! James Mook, of 818 Lake Park drive, had a swarm in his yard last Thursday, and he does not know what to do with them. Police did, however. They called on Eugene Allen, 459 Townsend, who soon gathered the swarm into a hive, and from now on, they will work for him. Mr. Allen is a tool and die maker, but as a bee he learned about bees, and ever since has fussed with them more or less. At one time, Mrs. Allen told us, he had 25 swarms and was selling honey to local stores. He keeps his bees at an orchard, the chardmen like bees because they help pollinate the blossoms, and that means more fruit.

An exhibition of student art is now to be seen at the Cranbrook Pavilion, Lake Park road from 2 until 5 p. m. daily through June 15. Cranbrook Academy of Art is the sponsor.

Baldwin Library will be closed all day Friday, Memorial Day. The library will be open on Saturday as usual.

Herbert Hoseney, 16 years old, of 812 Pleasant, going north of Shirley drive Saturday, skidded on fresh oil and hit a curb, damaging two wheels on the car he was driving.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kuefer celebrated last Wednesday evening their 25th wedding anniversary, and were feted at the Exchange Club dinner dance at Rotunda Inn. Harold is to be found at the Washbeck Building, for he is secretary.

BROOCK'S FARM BRIEFS

45 Acres, in the Rochester Hills, with a superbly built Colonial home and a fascinating water power mill.

The residence was built only 2 years ago—solid masonry, Stran-Steel framing, poured-concrete first and second floors, copper roof—air conditioned, insulated, pine paneled living room 28 x 28—as finely built as money will permit.

The old mill is operating fully, producing a well-known brand of stone ground whole wheat, rye and buckwheat flours. A truly fascinating place, with its old beams, mill-stones, sifting and milling machinery.

37 Acres border the mill pond and the dam with its rushing torrent. The stream and mill race flow by the mill and behind the residence.

A new 6 room tenant house, insulated and air conditioned, and a barn (for riding horses or cattle) complete as nice an estate farm as can be found in the Rochester area. Fine and new in every detail, it can be purchased for only $22,500. The residence alone cost over $25,000 only 2 years ago.

of the Corporation. He was secretary for Frank Conner when the latter was mayor of Detroit.

Patricia Mae, 1447 Dorchester, was reported to police as a dog bite victim. Patricia is six years old.

Edward Meery, 519 Lincoln, Bill Schermerhorn, 545 Stables, and Walter Randall, 777 Shirley drive, have suffered loss of their bicycles by theft during the past week.

Among those drawn for Circuit Court duty in June are the following: Bert Church and William Maxwell, of Birmingham; Lydell, Bloomfield Township; and Walter Nevill, Southfield. Names are drawn at random from a list of property taxpayers.

Mr. Charles K. Latham, 187 Chesterfield road, complained Friday that an airplane flew so low over her house that it shook the house.

We again have on hand a supply of those elegant State Highway Department maps.

No doubt everyone noticed that the flowering crab tree planted at South Woodward and Hunter blossomed! Many others will bloom next year.

Mrs. Charles Rawles, 935 Stanley street, reported to police Friday that some one had stolen a suit of clothes from her home.

Leon Bibbs, 16 years old, of 595 1/2 Woodward avenue, was involved in an auto accident in Pontiac, Friday, and police held him because he had no operator's license.

Sgt. Bill Green, of the Police Department, driving west on Hill-land avenue last Friday looking for a car, saw a car of the same color and make as the one that ran into the car of William Beaudoin, 1347 Holliston. Green said the other driver had cut out a driveway into his path.

Marvin G. Smith, of Birmingham, has had suit for divorce from Mrs. Mary Smith.

This year is the last year of graduations for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher, of Bloomfield Court. Every one of the past seven years, one of the four Fletcher children has either been a valedictorian, or a member of the senior class, and that ought to be some sort of a record. Barbara Fletcher, a Baldwin school, is valedictorian. This year, however, she is not a member of the senior class.

Tuesday night Michigan State College students and faculty gathered in publications held their annual banquet, in the Publications Building, at 10:30 p. m. George J. Averill, the speaker. This Wanderer gathered from the interesting meeting, for the students are bothered little by things like that.

The early spring with which we have been blessed this year terminated in the early blossoming of spring shrubs. Usually, they bloom about Depression Day.

This Wanderer usually picks his black, sweet cherry tree about July 4. It is a very early tree. Supply showed the fruit coming along fast, and it should be ready along about June 21.

We usually plant about a dozen tomato plants, but this year we planted only one. We decided to put in three dozen plants. Before long, it would probably be worth the step over to see Sunny's Dominie at Birmingham Fruit, and make arrangements to market the crop. It is really a very early variety of that new hybrid golden chameleon. It is supposed to yield better and more early of corn.

This episode came in the "Hills" Birmingham area. We are down in the Ozark Mountains. We had the sole survivors of the 24 who left May Sunday and were captured in a while so we can hear the news of our home town. Give us a report on the town, and to the Mayor. Your new soldiers, William Hookford, William LeFebvre, Hiram Edwards, and Dick Edwin. The manuscript dated Edwin just arrived from California.

The 5000 acre at Fort Leonard Wood, near Rolla, Mo., Managing Editor Harwood went by the camp in April while en route to St. Louis, and reported that you were for an hour in a terrific traffic jam in a winding mountain road. The jam resulted from quitting time at the Fort, as the thousands of laborers went to their homes. It was a better town, like you find in the movies. Cheap shacks were everywhere, auto house trailers parked pretentiously on the sides. There were even flop houses where workers could bunk for the night in a rough building.

Forty thousand men are to be "buried" in that remote spot with little to do for recreation or entertainment. This U. S. O. camp, starting in Birmingham next week is to take care of these needs.

Thirty-five dollars was stolen at the Grand Laundry branch office at 492 So. Woodward avenue over the weekend.

There's a new house going up at Sufferland and Pine, and twice, L. K. Klinger, the owner, has complained to police that boys have been damaging it.

Superbly Attractive

Even more so than you'd expect! From the top to bottom—inside and out—to the stucco drive and lovely planting—nothing is left undone. Nearly new—the fine care and interest the owners have taken in their home, provides an atmosphere of "livability" not always obtainable.

Bright and spacious with 3 bedrooms, 3 baths, paneled library with fireplace, dining room with corner cupboards, plentiful and ample closets—you'll like this house! Everything is modern—heating, insulation, storm windows, mechanicals—and the Sprinkler System will appeal to a "busy man" who wants everything just right when he comes home after a "busy day."

Let us take you through by an appointment at your convenience.
