John H. Rosso Unhurt in Crash

Smashed automobiles but no injuries resulted from a crash last Friday at Hazel and Elm streets. Mrs. John H. Buckberrough, driving east on Hazel, was struck in a car driven north on Elm by John Harvey Rosso, 644 Pierce. Mrs. Buckberrough's machine received a broken wheel and a smashed right side; while the front end of Rosso's car was damage.

No Operator License; Man Gets Ticket

A crash occurred Sunday at Hunter boulevard and Oakland avenue. According to the police report, Dominic Gerardi, of 210 Withmore, Pontiac, crossed on Oakland "against the light," and collided with an automobile driven north on Hunter by Stephen Kephart, 6645 Neckel, Dearborn. Kephart was given a ticket for not having an operator's license.

Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the President:
"We are not in the war and I hope that we will not get into the war."

William Green, president, American Federation of Labor:
"Strikes to right real wrongs are the inalienable right of free workers."
