Banquets and Teas Focus Attention Here on Mother's Day This Sunday

Organizations Plan Mother-Daughter Affairs This Week

With Mother's Day in the offing, Birmingham organizations are scheduling teas and banquets in honor of mothers, while many families are traveling to various cities and towns to spend a quiet week-end with their parents and grand-parents.

Mother and Daughter Tea

Spring blossoms will be used on the tea table and about the rooms of the Presbyterian Church tomorrow afternoon, May 9, when the Women's Union will entertain at a Mother and Daughter Tea.

Entertainment will be provided by a string ensemble made up of member's children.

Mrs. Matthew Cammarere is general chairman of the tea, working under her are Mrs. K. B. Olson and Mrs. J. Stuart Cobb arranging decorations. The eight hostesses will be Mrs. E. W. Seaholm, Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mrs. Wilmer E. Moody, Mrs. Earl G. Stetter, Mrs. Paul Penfield, Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison, Mrs. R. J. Waterbury, and Mrs. Glenn Coley.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Stuart Allen, Mrs. Glenn Harris, Mrs. Fred Rose, and Mrs. Robert Porritt.

Business Women's Banquet

Feature of the Business Women's Banquet for mothers and daughters will be a floor show of Detroit talent. The party which is an annual affair of the club, will be held next Thursday evening at the Community House. The committee in charge includes Inez McCoy, Mrs. Grace Glassford, Hazel Dennison, Mrs. Vera Schultz.

Methodist Christian Service Society Dinner

The Women's Society of Christian Service is sponsoring a "Mother-Daughter" banquet at the First Methodist Church this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Dinner is being planned and prepared by a committee of women under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Clarence P. Davey, and will be served by members of the Men's Club of the Methodist Church.

"The Dixie Eight" singers of the Ford Motor Company will be a special feature of the evening. Mrs. John Maynard and Mrs. Victor Peek are in charge of the program.

Tickets can be obtained from group leaders and from the general chairman.

Pythian Sisters

The Pythian sisters will have their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet tomorrow evening at the Embury Methodist Church. The dinner is being served by women members of the church. The program has been arranged for by Mrs. Dessie Hoteling, Mrs. Elizabeth Arden, and Mrs. Elizabeth Finley.

Banquet and Tea

The Soroptimist club is combining a tea honoring its national president with a mother and daughter affair at the Community House Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Members of the Metropolitan Auxiliary Club are planning to hold their annual mother and daughter dinner tomorrow at Devon Gables.

Summer Program Well Supported At P.-T. A. Party

One of the most successful aspects of the May P.-T. A. party held last Friday night at Baldwin High school was the community spirit displayed throughout the evening, according to Mrs. Allen W. Thorson, general chairman of the party. Given for support of the Summer Recreation Program, the party was also a success from the financial point of view, with approximately 500 persons in attendance and around 1500 tickets being sold.

The summer recreation floor

"The P.-T. A. Recreation Committee of the Birmingham Schools wishes to thank everyone for the splendid cooperation and assistance in making the May Party a success."
MRS. ALLEN W. THORSON
General Chairman

show, given by members of Yvonne Gay's Dance Studio, was the highlight of the evening. Various summer sports including baseball, bathing, riding, golf, tennis, and picnicking were depicted by the young dancers. The whole program was symbolic of recreational facilities provided by the city throughout the summer months.

Ballroom dancing was held in the gymnasium, and games and bridge were played in other parts of the building. Assisting Mrs. Thorson were Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, in charge of bridge, Mrs. Glenn Berry heded publicity, Mrs. Norman Porter was chairman of the ticket sale, and Mrs. Robert Gang, the floor arrangements. Mrs. Lewis Sappington headed the committee on cards and tallies and Mrs. Ralf A. Cobksten took care of prizes.

Mrs. Harry Breitmeyer was chairman of decorations for the bridge table, and Mrs. Lloyd Chapman was in general charge of dancing. Mrs. Andrew Watson was responsible for refreshments and Mrs. Carol Darling took care of dance decorations. Lighting and check-room facilities were handled by Mrs. Adele Halladay.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad.

Birmingham Club To Officially Open Women's Activities

Official opening for Ladies' at the Birmingham Golf Club will take place tomorrow, May 9, with a luncheon, the spring meeting, and golfing all in the order of the day. Every third Friday of each month during the coming season is to be guest day.

Members of the Ladies' Golf Committee for the 1941 season are Mrs. William S. Simmers, chairman, Mrs. J. Albert Stephenson, vice-chairman, Mrs. Carl Runge, secretary, and Mrs. Frank O'Connell, treasurer. Serving on the rules committee are Mrs. L. P. Dodd, Mrs. W. A. Covey, and Mrs. W. A. Kent.

A spring fashion show and luncheon is being planned for Tuesday, May 20, and will be held at the clubhouse.

"Spring Swing" at Baldwin Honors Current Sports

Miss Bronson

In an atmosphere of orange blossoms and arbors, the "Spring Swing," Baldwin High school's annual spring dance, will be held in the gymnasium tomorrow evening. This dance will honor all spring sports at the school, namely track, baseball, tennis, and golf.

According to Jane Bronson, general chairman, the center of decorations will be the huge may-pole which will rise from the center of the dance floor to the ceiling. A colorful crepe-paper canopy will cover the top of the entire gymnasium. Cut flowers will adorne the arbors which will be placed around the room.

Carolyn Wright heads the decoration committee. Members of the Assembly Club will sponsor a drink and food concession at the back of the gym.

Clare Greeve's Orchestra

Clare Greeve's orchestra, popular with students who attend Saturday Night dances at the Community House, will appear for this dance. A committee under the supervision of Roger Stolberg made the selection.

The floor show will center around the crowning of a king and queen for the festival. Elected for these two is being held today. Those nominated for queen are Mary Ann Mead, Marion Hinchcliffe, Virginia Ralphs, Nancy Kirn, Jane Bronson, Barbara Beecher, and Patty Burke—for king, Sheldon Olson, Jim Garfield, Dick Neely, Bill Hopkins, Bill Mack, Dick Gilbert, and Pat Dunn. The result of the election will be kept a secret until the night of the show.

Nancy Kirn heads the publicity committee, John Gillespie is in charge of business and Robert Cole favors and tickets. Mrs. Gary Darling is the faculty advisor.

The dance will start at nine and ends at midnight. Admission is 75 cents presale, and 75 cents at the door.

Some of the Dates

Among those planning to attend are Tom Williams, Barbara Peart, Al Valpey, Virginia Matthews, Mike Carney, Sally Carey, Louis Bacgelon, Billie McDonald, Bill Ribbents, Barbara Holland, Frank O'Toole, and Marion Gilbreath.

Newell Wright, Barbara Scott, Dale Netherton, Jean Merritt, Dick Hopkins, Mary Jane Bell, Howard Breitmeyer, Virginia Bostwick, Sid Wilkins, Jean Wagner, John Roy, Marvel McGinley, Bob Baehner, Patty Burke, Howard Ward, Jeanne Burton, Paul Dunn, Jane Bronson, John Gordon, Nancy McChry, Walker Bagby, Carolyn Watkins, Bruce Carey, and Barbara Jeffery.

Junior Sigma Gammas Have May Party at Clinic

Junior members of Sigma Gamma gave a real May party, right down to the Maypole dance, for 50 patients at the Hospital school in the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic, last Saturday afternoon. Rosemary Strong organized members from Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham for the afternoon.

Patients did just about as much entertaining Saturday afternoon as did the hostesses. They presented a program climaxed by original songs, a king and queen of May were chosen and crowned amid much ceremony, while the Maypole dance finished off the entertainment.

Round of Parties Fete Miss English And F. L. Robinson

A full calendar faces Frances English for the next few weeks prior to her marriage, on May 31, to Frederick Child Robinson, Jr. Miss English is the daughter of the Richard Englishes of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Robinson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Robinson, of Detroit.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Kales had an dinner party and dance in their Grosse Pointe home Saturday night for both Miss English and Mr. Robinson. The next day Hope Whitton entertained at a luncheon and closed shower in her Detroit home. Then on Friday, tomorrow, Mrs. Spencer C. Shelley, on Kenesaw avenue, is giving a tea for Frances.

Saturday evening, May 17, Saunders will have a supper party and kitchen shower in their home on Fairfax avenue for the young couple. If, spring's still in the air, a picnic supper, Monday, May 19, in honor of Miss Merritt, Barbara Tenant, and Miss English. It is being given by Mrs. J. Morrison Taylor, Mrs. John Hordy, of Mrs. John Kales, of Bingham road. Mrs. Bertram Kelchum is planning a luncheon at her home on Madison avenue for Wednesday, May 14, and the following day Mrs. Palmer Bradfield will have a luncheon and shower at Orchard Lake Country Club.

The Dick Boorsmas are entertaining at a cocktail party Saturday, May 17, prior to the dinner party being given by the Benjamin Brewsters in their home on Brookside boulevard, all in honor of Frances and Fred.

City P.-T. A. Council Fetes New Members

Plans are under way for the final P.-T. A. council meeting which is scheduled for Thursday evening, May 22. Members of the incoming executive board of each P.-T. A. unit and incoming members of the council will be the invited guests for the evening.

Mrs. William R. Pilgrim is arranging the program which will include the reading of annual reports. Mrs. H. H. Shellinger, retiring president, will preside over the meeting, and Mrs. A. G. Holmes is making plans for a social hour.

Soloists at Musicale Will Be Bill Gail And Marion Jewell

Marion Sylvester Jewell, contralto soloist of Detroit, and Bill Gail, saxophonist, also of Detroit and formerly of Birmingham, will be guest artists at the Birmingham Musicale annual luncheon this noon at the Community House.

Accompanied by Margaret Neff Glenn, of Royal Oak, and a former member of the Birmingham Musicale, Mrs. Jewell will sing "The Day is No More" and "Serenade" by Carpenter, "Shoes" by Manning, and "The Piper" by Head. Mr. Gail will play "Pas des Fleurs" by Delibes, "Intermezzo" by Provost, and "Praeludium und Allegro" by Fritz Kreisler. His accompanist will be Alice Berndt.

Cast Is Revealed For Benefit Play

The cast of characters has been announced for the play, "You Can't Take It With You," which is to be given in Birmingham May 23 to benefit the British War Relief Society fund.

A spokesman for the group declared this week: Some high school students, a season or so ago, positively told us, "You can't take it with you." Now, some of those having left high school find they can take IT with them and they still have IT and are putting all that IT into a play for British Relief.

The players, some of whom are still in school, include Gertrude Rogerson, Ken Spohr, Ward Cruickshank, Bob Clement, Phyllis Beaney, Jack Finch, Ricky Patterson, Doris Protheroe, Bill Mc-

Call, Ed. Hascall, Esther Smith, Barbara Cole, Bob Noyes, with Shirley Chaminade, student factotum.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad for quick results

Birmingham Students Receive Scholastic Honors at U. of M.

Seven of the eight hundred University of Michigan students receiving public recognition at the eighteenth annual Honors Convocation, April 25, for outstanding scholastic work, are from Birmingham. Speaker for the convocation was William E. Wickenden, president of Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland.

The following students from Birmingham were honored: William M. Cruikshank, of 247 Merrill street, was awarded a University Fellowship. Henry Michael Foley, of 888 Madison avenue was awarded honors in physics. Richard Alan Harvey, of 831 E. Maple avenue, was awarded freshman honors in scholarship in the Literary college.

Eleanor Catherine Kelly, of 707 Ann street, was awarded sophomore honors in the Literary college. Lynn Alfred Townsend, of RRI, was awarded senior honors in education. Robert Frederic Ziegler of 755 Madison, was awarded senior honors for scholarship in the school of medicine. Florence J. Signaigo, of 564 Vinewood avenue, received recognition for outstanding scholarship.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad.

Dunstan Guild To Give Play May 17

The comedy, "The Late Christopher Bean" will be presented by members of St. Dunstan's Guild a week from Saturday, May 17. Rehearsal is already under way for the Guild's June production, the name of which hasn't been revealed as yet.

Lee Pope, assisted by Romayne Thompson, and Sally Dunstone is in charge of direction for Saturday night's show. Mrs. David Walker Lee heads production. Mrs. Henry Booth is doing make-up. Mrs. Brewster Shaw, chairman of properties, and Mrs. Edward Boardman is in charge of sets.

The cast includes Mrs. John R. Carritte, Jr., Dr. Arthur Wentz, Mrs. Walter Bromley, Mrs. Ronald Ballantyne, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Shannon, Tony Beltaire, David Todd, and David R. Ballantine.

St. Dunstan's Guild will hold its annual meeting on May 23, at Devon Gables. Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson are in charge of the dinner and program which will include election of officers.

Legion Auxiliary To Hold "Girl State"

The local American Legion Auxiliary Unit will send a girl to a "Girl State," which is being sponsored and carried on for the first time this year. She will spend a week at the University of Michigan toward the latter part of June.

The "Girl State" is being planned after the "Wolverine Boy's State" held each year at Michigan State College in East Lansing, which is sponsored by the American Legion. The girl who will represent Birmingham will be chosen through the local school system.

Marriage Licenses

Arthur Hazzard, Green, 35, North Woodward avenue, and Lola Griffin, 26, Franklin.

Harold E. Whitney, 24, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Jane Lang, 23, Glenhurst drive.

Cyril Alexander Beaudein, 26, Birmingham, and Violet Esther Briggs, 19, Clawson.

Hugh Paul McHugh, 25, Bingham road, and Edith Lucy Porter, 22, Daines street.

Jordan R. Stahl, Birmingham, and Betty Bell Raycraft, Mt. Pleasant.

Leo Edward Balbaugh, Detroit, and Roma Wimmifred Lourick, Birmingham.

Ray Edward Terry, Oxford and Hoyce Hamlyn Henke, Birmingham.

James H. Winborn, Birmingham, and Lee Mixer, Birmingham.

Community House Schedules One More Saturday Dance

By popular demand of all the young crowd, there is to be one more Saturday night dance at the Community House. This is the last one of the year and will be called the Senior Serenade in tribute to the June graduating classes of 1941. The dance will be held Saturday, May 24. Committees for the affair will be announced later.

4 O'CLOCK every Wednesday is the deadline for turning in your classified "Want Ads."

"It's for You, Mom"

- Give Her: PHOENIX HOSE For Wear and Beauty — 69c to $1.35 Pair
- Give Her: ARTEMIS LINGERIE For Lasting Loveliness 39c to $1.98
- Give Her: ACCESSORIES by Kay Baum For Smartness 59c to $3.98
- Give Her: COTTON DRESSES or SPORTSWEAR For Summer Coolness $1.00 to $6.98

ALL MOTHER'S DAY GIFTS Beautifully Gift Wrapped Free!

KAY BAUM SHOP
81 W. MAPLE AVE. PHONE 2161

ONLY $22 MORE FOR AN EIGHT IN ANY MODEL

PONTIAC PRICES BEGIN AT $828*

FOR THE DE LUXE "TORPEDO" SIX BUSINESS COUPE

A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE

...and you may set the payments to suit yourself

If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Pontiac "Torpedo"—and here's proof! Pontiac prices begin at only a few dollars more than the lowest. In all probability, your present car will cover the down payment—so you may arrange your payments so that the amount you pay each month suits your convenience. Ask your Pontiac dealer to submit figures on a complete deal.

*Delivered at Pontiac, Michigan. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices and specifications subject to change without notice.

Pontiac THE FINE CAR WITH THE LOW PRICE

Cadillac Motor Car Division—Birmingham Branch
Woodward at Willits Phone 1021 Birmingham, Mich.

CERTIFIED COLD FUR STORAGE

BIRMINGHAM'S ONLY Exclusive FURRIER

How Lovely Your Furs Will Look

AFTER A SUMMER IN

DIMAS FURS

Cold Storage Vaults

How your furs are handled makes all the difference in the world!

Here at Dimas' your furs are given individual attention by experienced furriers.

Every coat is examined carefully; is blown free of dust and dirt and placed in our Certified Cold Storage Vaults—where there is plenty of room around it to allow for free circulation of air!

Such care actually "Revitalizes" your coat . . . gives it . . .

New Beauty Longer Life!

CALL Birmingham 3040

Our Bonded Messenger Will Call

It Costs No More!

Standard Rates: minimum on Fur Coats, $3.00; Fur Trimmed Coats, $1.50.

DIMAS FURS
227 So. Woodward Ave.
Birmingham Theatre Bldg.
Phone 3040

"18 Years on Woodward Ave."

Hospitalization INSURANCE

Now available to men, women and children at low monthly rates. Includes $1000.00 death benefit. Covers operations, any sickness, any accident from any cause. Largest company of its kind in the world.

Address Box No. 68
Birmingham Eccentric

The Sweetest GIFT FOR MOTHER

"We Suggest"

Our two pound Trio Box, a three layer package containing both miniature and larger pieces with both dark and light coatings. Attractively wrapped for Mother's Day.

$1.50

Or Choose from Our Large Assortment of GOBELIN, CECIL, GILBERT, BUNTE CHOCOLATES

At 50¢ 80¢ $1.00 $1.50 PER POUND

All Attractively Wrapped for Mother's Day

CAN'T you just see mother's face light up with happiness when you visit her on Mother's Day and hand her a great big box of our wonderful chocolates? The sweet spirit in which you give will be repeated for her delight with every piece of this wholesome, delicately spiced candy she enjoys.

WILSON DRUG

WE DELIVER PHONE 2500