

Obituary

William J. Belknap

Funeral was held Saturday for William J. Belknap, 58, of Chestnut road, who died suddenly Wednesday in Toledo. A leading patent attorney, Mr. Belknap attended the University of Michigan, graduating in 1907. For years he was a member of firm of Whittemore, Hulbert, Belknap, in Detroit. He leaves his wife, Katharine, one daughter, Mrs. D. M. Carr, of Cincinnati, and son, William J. Carr, Jr., of Corning, N. Y.

Miss Mildred Sibley

Funeral services were held today afternoon in Detroit for Miss Mildred Sibley, 34, of 384 Willow street, who passed away Nov. 25 in Jennings Hospital after a long illness.

The misplanned article contest involves the use of a ballot on which are listed 31 places of business. Each shop will put an out-of-place article in its window, and the object is to see out the article and list it on the ballot. For example, at The Eccentric's window this week is an item pertaining to the game of golf.

Valuable Prizes
First place involves $75 in trade; second place, $10 in trade; third place, $7 in trade; and fourth place, $5 in trade.

Prizes in the home decoration contest total $125 in cash. More details will be announced later.

Full details in the children's Christmas party will be announced in next week's paper. This will take place at 2 p. m. a week from Saturday in the Baldwin High School auditorium, with a gift for every youngster. A troupe of professional entertainers will be present to honor Santa Claus.
