Police to Escort Procession of Cars Leaving at 1:30

By NORMAN PORTER
A car caravan to take place in the Plymouth-Birmingham football game tomorrow has been planned by a central committee from the senior English classes.
The caravan will form at 1:30 p.m. on Merrill Street, facing Southfield behind the lead car driven by J. M. Armstrong, president of the Sideline Quarterback, who are helping to sponsor the caravan and are furnishing numbers and bumper banners for each car participating.

BALDWIN HI-LIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS
Wind, rain, and a gloomy atmosphere made last Friday night a perfect night for Baldwin costumes were all very appropriate and youthful beggars went out in droves.
The most successful occasion of all was the dance at the Commandery House, despite the fact that it was over-heated and overcrowded.
