Henry S. Booths Hosts to Group At Benefit Affair

Church Committee's Work In War Relief Described

While many Bloomfield Hills people are struggling with the infernal white heat of the summer, the members of the Church of the Christian Science War Relief Committee are busy preparing for the annual War Relief Ball at the Book Court in Detroit.

The ball itself will be held in the Crystal Ballroom, which is the largest ball room in the city. The fact will be served by both the K.H. Kat and the Trindado rooms, where special hot shoes have been arranged. In the latter the floor show will include an elaborate style show being sponsored by Saks Fifth Avenue.

Enjoying themselves in the Trocadero will be a subscription club made up of society set Mrs. and Mrs. Roger I. Hooton, the former Mrs. Leonard of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hooton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hooton.

The Henry S. Booths are the hosts of the ball. They are assisted by Mrs. W. D. Thomson and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert G. Rothman, who are the sponsors of the ball. The ball will be held on October 20, 1941, at 8:00 p.m.

The ball is a benefit for the War Relief Ball, which is a fund-raising party for the relief of the British people. The ball is held annually in Detroit and is one of the largest and most successful of its kind in the city.
