

Three Weddings Occupy Social Spotlight in Whirl of Week-End Activities

Jeanne Macdonald To Wed A. Endres Saturday, Oct. 18

Surprise of the season comes with the announcement of Jeanne Macdonald's engagement and wedding date, which is to be Saturday, Oct. 18. Jeanne, who is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Collins Macdonald and the late Mr. Macdonald, is to wed Anthony Otto Endres, IV, now of Detroit, at 7 o'clock on Saturday afternoon in St. Dunstan's Church, Christ Church Eastbrook. Mr. Endres is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Otto Endres, III, of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Following the wedding there will be a reception at the Detroit Athletic Club. Miss Macdonald was graduated from Kingswood School and from the University of Michigan. Mr. Endres has attended schools throughout the country including the University of Michigan, where he did graduate work. He is employed as an architect in Detroit.

Masons to Sponsor Dinner-Dance, Oct. 24

Friday evening, Oct. 24, has been set aside as the time for the Masons' big dinner-dance, being sponsored by the Birmingham chapters of Lodge F. and A. M. No. 14, and F. & A. M. No. 318. The dinner is to be served at 7:30 p. m., and the dancing which follows will be generally of the sophisticated variety. The party will be held at the Community House.

Dick Lewis, High Priest of the Birmingham F. & A. M., is furnishing the music in the form of the "Southern Five" orchestra. Men working on the general committee in charge of the dinner are: A. K. Bird, James Bayard, and Ralph Mann.

Large Reception After Kern-Viger Rites Saturday

The week of her marriage comes, and Mary Louise Kern is still rishing from one party to another being given for her by her many friends here, in Detroit and Grosse Pointe. Mary Louise, who is the daughter of the Otto Kerns, Bloomfield Hills, will be married Saturday morning to David Viger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan J. Viger, of Fairway drive, Detroit.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a large wedding reception at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club from 7 o'clock to 7:30 p. m.

Casserole-Luncheons This Year's Feature At Social Book Club

CASSEROLE-LUNCHEONS are what one of Birmingham's Book Clubs are enjoying this year. This particular group specializes each year in one particular course, the type of dish—one year it was soup-luncheons, another dessert-luncheons, and so this time they have decided to try out all these yummy casserole dishes so popular these days.

The club is to meet at the home of Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman on Monday, Oct. 20. Members who will be attending include Mrs. William E. Blythe, Mrs. Lewis K. Marshall, Mrs. Robert P. Grandby, Mrs. Hugh W. Hutchcock, Mrs. Henry Whiting, Mrs. Fredrick E. Booth, Mrs. Albert A. Clark, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Maurice W. Cochran, Mrs. Fred R. Farrar, Mrs. W. C. Gilchrist, Mrs. C. C. Theon, Mrs. Dusek, and Mrs. William Swartz.

Cobb-Ivers Vows To Be Exchanged At Home Ceremony

At an informal wedding Saturday afternoon Louise Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, is to become the bride of Wallace R. Ivers, son of Mrs. Wallace Ivers of Pleasant Ridge, at the home of the bride, the parents on Sufield avenue. The Rev. Walter L. Forsyth will read the service.

Winding up the long list of parties honoring Louise was a

Business Women Plan Masquerade Party For Next Wednesday

As usual Halloween is again offering its legitimate excuse for unity groups to dress up and have a lot of fun. One of the first of masquerade parties scheduled this year is that of the Business Women's Club to be held at the Community House next Wednesday evening, Oct. 22, with dinner being served at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Julia K. Lally, general chairman of the affair, promises lots of fun and excitement throughout the evening, and urges all members to attend in costume.

Patersons and Shuells Hosts at Breakfast

Now that the fall season at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club is in full swing again, members may be looking for some cozy morning meet-up meeting and particularly on Saturdays. As usual two members of the club will obtain a breakfast in the clubhouse each Saturday following the hunt. This year the hosts are the regulars, the Frank W. Shuells and

H. Patersons will be hosts to a score and more at the usual breakfast. Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lovett and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Waugh were the co-hosts.

Taxes to be Topic Of Voters League

The regular monthly meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be held in the Community House, on Monday, October 20th, commencing at 1:30 o'clock.

The topic of the day will be "Taxes, 1942 and After." A forum consisting of Mrs. Gladys Carson, Mrs. Lee A. White, Mrs. E. C. Cull, Mrs. Stanley Spuegel, Mrs. John S. Lane, Mrs. Angus D. McVay, Mrs. Victor B. Ogden, Mrs. Samuel F. Gawne, Mrs. K. J. Williams, Mrs. Robert Hulbert and Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis will discuss the question from its various angles.

The League can't help pay taxes, but it can help the taxpayer understand the laws. Tax money must provide more service, not less, if civic morale is to be sustained. Women of Birmingham are urged to attend this meeting and learn what's what in this important question. Membership in the League is open to all women voters in the community.

Gwendolyn Standing Tells of Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Standing of Gardena avenue, Royal Oak, formerly of Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gwendolyn M. to Guy E. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner, of Baldwin avenue, Royal Oak. Both young people were graduated from Royal Oak High School. Mr. Warner was also graduated from the University of Michigan last June with a B. A. degree. No date has been set for the wedding.

Club Notes

DEMOLAY
 A fine representative group from the Birmingham chapter of Demolay went to Bay City to attend the Annual Convention there Oct. 10, 11 and 12. Dorothy Stephans, the District 6 selection for Demolay Sweetheart of Michigan, did not receive the honor, though placing very high on the list. The winner was the representative Sweetheart from Detroit.

A number of candidates received their degrees at the convocation from the State Degree Team and are now full-fledged and happy members. These are Carl Thomas, Harry Lee, Donald Benetor, and Hill Lemke, all of whom attend Baldwin High School.

A social activity meeting is to be held on Tuesday, Oct. 21.
