

Work of City's Nurse Described by Reporter

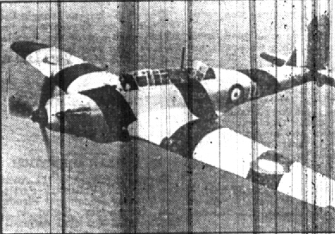

By KATHRYN UMBREY
To the general lay public, excluding mothers of small children, contagious diseases seem vaguely to be a thing of the past. And to a great degree they are—with the help of trained public health workers.

A New Mark to Paint At

Kansas City painters—114 of them—set a new world record by painting a 10-foot square in 3 minutes 18 seconds. The old record of 4 minutes 14 seconds was established last year in Omaha, where 20 gallons of paint were applied over 8000 square feet of space in the same time.

Sharpens His Bomber's Eye

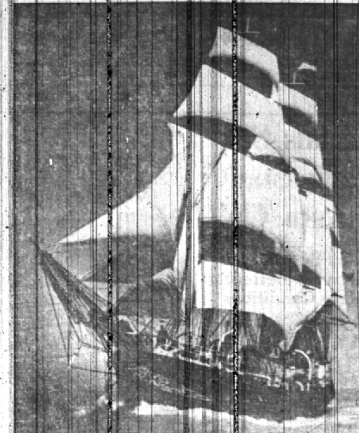

Flying low over quiet Lake Erie, a Fairey Battle bomber set buoy targets for the bombardier who is training at the Jarvis Bombardier and Gunnery School, in Canada.
