From the Women's Angle

By ELLEN DILLBERG
Fall is in the air, gently by night and hand in glove with the crisp, stimulating air to a brisker pace and reminding us to be ready for the cooler blizzards to come. And because of Grandmother's Day... there are several of blizzards for the life nights.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Burns who are now living at 1002 1/2 E. 12th avenue. The Burns, who have one daughter, Betty, moved here from Pontiac recently. Mr. Burns had always lived in Birmingham, and also because it will be more convenient for Mr. Burns in commuting to his office. He is associated with the National Bank of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lund, 1650 Linden avenue. They have one child, Phyllis Ann, who goes to Quaker school, and who lives at 1650 Linden. Mrs. Lund moved here when Mr. Lund was appointed director of the State Unemployment Compensation Bureau with headquarters in Birmingham. Mr. Lund is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

The J. P. Kings and their young son, Jean Paul King, Jr., aged 2 1/2 years old. The Kings, who lived in Detroit, were looking for a new home in Birmingham. Mr. King wanted a 1944 Yorkshire Roadster, so they moved. Mr. King is a Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Padden who are living at 954 South Gies. Mr. Padden is a member of the Birmingham Golf and Country Club.
