Should Send Food to Small Democracies

Editor, The Eccentric: As Herbert Hoover's radio address "Can Europe's Children be Saved?" delivered last Sunday evening over the Mutual network, was not heard by most Birminghamites (because O.K.W. the mutual station in this area is subject to Canadian censorship) you may wish to print a brief summary of the objectives of the committee for which Mr. Hoover spoke.

Proclamation for Navy Day

WHEREAS, the solemn observance of Navy Day will be held throughout the nation on Monday the 27th day of October, it is fitting that all ceremonies and activities relating and pertaining thereto, be observed fittingly on that day.

Three Small Fires Doused by Firemen

The fire department received three calls upon the hood of the city on Monday, October 27th, when a short circuit caused a small fire in the second floor of 102 Franklin.

WHEREAS, other nations have failed because they did not properly protect their limits against the forces of aggression; let us take this occasion to give thanks that we of the great land, have undertaken a program that will result in our having a Navy second to none.

PLEAS GUILTY AGAIN

Walter Lashburne appeared in court last Friday in a new plea for driving while under the influence of liquor. However, he pleaded guilty and was placed in a jail cell.
