

Players to Give "The Male Animal" Friday and Saturday, Oct. 31, Nov. 1

Parties Featured Before and After Both Productions

The Village Players and their friends have been looking forward to this coming week-end all fall for on Friday and Saturday evenings, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, the Players will present "The Male Animal" under the direction of Loren T. Robinson and Mrs. Arthur L. Gungung.

Betrothed

Mrs. Patricia Shields, of 1492 Bird street, announces the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Norine to Joseph McCheson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCheson, of Call, Ontario, Canada. The wedding date will be announced later.

Miss Ghadya Rogers is in charge of lines, and Mrs. George Fox and Mrs. Joseph Hardig are taking care of properties.

One of the high points of the show concerns the return of the typical alumni to a college homecoming celebration. The play is set in a college town, having for its principal character a young professor who has become involved with a few radical minded students.

Dinner parties prior to the play and supper parties following it are scheduled for both evenings. The Donald S. Bell is entertaining at dinner prior to the play on Saturday evening. Their guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. George Brunch, Loree Robinson, Mrs. Charles Asper, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wylie Bell, and Dr. and Mrs. George F. Raynald.

Parent Institute To Be Next Week

The University of Michigan is conducting its 12th annual Parent Educators Institute on Nov. 5, 6, and 7, in Ann Arbor. The institute is sponsored by the Extension Service of the University and the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

A particular topic has been chosen for each day's discussion and study. On Wednesday sessions on "The Family" will last from 8 a.m. through dinner. The following day "The State" is to be taken up, and on Friday, the topic is to be "The World Community."

Although the Institute is sponsored by the Extension Service of the University, in cooperation with Parent-Teacher Associations, any organization interested in parent education is invited to attend the sessions. Evening meetings have been arranged in order that more fathers and husbands may have an opportunity to participate in the Institute.

Presidents of the various Parent-Teacher Association Units in Birmingham will attend the institute as well as many others. Anyone wishing to go should contact Mrs. Roy B. McCutcheon for particulars.
