Maples Meet Strong Ferndale Team Tonight in Last Home Tilt

Wurster's Men Out to Avenge Last Year's Tie

BY NORMAN PORTER

Tonight at Pierce Field at 8 o'clock, the Maples clash with a strong rival, the Rail-splitters of Ferndale, who have thus far defeated East Detroit, Port Huron and Berkley, tied Hazel Park, and lost only to Ann Arbor and Eastern, both high standing teams in state football. It is the last home game.)

Ferndale's line averages 165 pounds and has speed and alertness. The backfield is a very strong and fast-running quartet.

Coach Darby has a skilled combination with Welch, number 10, and Brotko, 24, doing the running, while Price number 22, handles the kicking.

Against this strong aggregation will pitted the Maple team, league leaders of the Twin Valley League, with a line averaging 165 pounds and a fighting backfield.

Besides playing to defend their unblemished 1941 record, the Maples will be out to avenge the 6-6 tie handed them in the mud by Ferndale last year, the first touchdown to ruin an unscored upon, untied, and undefeated 1940 record. An intercepted pass in the waning minutes of the game did the trick.

Ferndale usually presents an able aerial squad, against which the Maples hope to show as good a pass defense as at Ecorse, the latter completing only seven passes out of 31 tossed.

Rouge Thinclads Narrowly Win

River Rouge's cross-country team edged out Birmingham by the slim margin of three points when River Rouge men placed second, third, fourth, fifth, and ninth for a total of 29 points to Birmingham's 32 last Thursday at Pierce Field.

Frank Wangberg, local thinclad, placed first with a time of 10:35.

(The result might have been different if Jack Brown, Birmingham's mainstay, who was out with an injured leg, had been in there slugging.

Maples Are Given Assistant Coach

A valuable and needed member has been added to the Baldwin High School football team. No, it isn't a triple-threat football star. It is Harold Newcomb, who will be assistant football coach and take charge of the ninth and tenth grade reserves, principally. For some years now, Head Coach George Wurster has taken the large responsibility of coaching some 70 boys, which is no small chore.

Mr. Newcomb graduated from Wayne University last spring and was a member of the football and basketball teams of that institution. Aside from his coaching duties, Newcomb is a social studies instructor at Adams Junior High School.

Sports Showup

All sports have their ups and downs. In football, professional, college and even high school teams have their good and bad years.

In the last three years it is safe to say Birmingham has been on the upclimb in football. Its teams have gone through the seasons with one or two defeats and may be a tie, which is good football in high school or anywhere else. It seems in most high schools that their teams are on the top of their respective classes only about two or three years at a time.

Birmingham's reputation is a sports has always been good. Birmingham has remained at the top in its league and among the leading class B teams in the state. Coach Wurster has really done much to keep up Birmingham sports.

This year the Maples have had a good season even before it is over. Although there are three encounters left, the Maples have won six to date. (This does not imply that the remaining games are pushovers.)

It is this reporter's assumption that Birmingham has still to reach the top in football. Although it has always been good, it can still be much better.

There are three main reasons for his assumption. First and foremost is Coach George Wurster. Coach Wurster is the type of person who can tell a person a thing and get it across the first time. His drive and spirit and love of the sport make him the ideal coach.

Assistant Coach Harold Newcomb is the second reason. Although he has only been out at Pierce Field for the past two weeks, he is already a great favorite of the team. His clear and fresh knowledge of football make him a big asset in the Maples' football machine. Coach Newcomb will help greatly in developing some of the young players that Coach Wurster would not meet until their second or third years.

The third, but far from the last, reason is the boys out for football. Birmingham has always had a group of boys who wanted to play the sport. Their record proves that. With football such a popular sport it is not strange that Birmingham has such fine teams.

With the necessary 100 students registered and a waiting list established, the 1942 Washington Group, under the supervision of advisers Eugene Hubbard and Miss Ruth Hull, has already begun to earn the $70 required by each individual for the trip.

There will be a few changes in the itinerary this year, an extra day in Washington increasing the length of the trip, while in New York students will visit La Guardia Airport and in Washington the National Art Gallery and the F. B. I., not visited in previous years.

Bits of Barnum

Barnum Observes Navy Day

For Barnum's Navy Day Assembly, the Detroit Naval Recruiting Station sent Officer Wrisan to tell the students something about his experiences in the Navy. He told about Navy boats including airplane carriers, battleships, destroyers, mosquito boats, and submarines.

After he concluded his talk, he answered several questions asked by students in the audience. One girl was very eager to know if he had a girl in every port, but was disappointed to find that he was married.

He is a machinist's mate and has served 16 years in the United States Navy.

Before Mr. Wriska's talk, two very appropriate numbers were played by the Barnum Student Orchestra, under the direction of A. W. Berndt.—Alma Black.

Barnumites to Attend Conference

Saturday, Nov. 1, there is to be a conference at Cranbrook. The following ninth graders from Barnum will attend: Donald Kimmins, Joyce Caryl, Kathryn Gibbons, Jean Kelly, Gladean Schlaack, Jim Martin, David Waddell, and Allen Aikens. Five other people will be sent by the P.T.A.

The conference is being sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., and the subject of the meetings will be Religion in the Schools.—Mary Lou Teichman.

Halloween Dance is Fun

That funny old pasquerade rolled around again last week, and with it rolled in several hundred people. I was standing by the door when all at once I heard a roar of laughter and in strolled Raggedy Ann and Andy. (Nancy Al and Lois B.) This pair won the prize for the best couple. Who was that girl dressed in pink? Oh! Pardon me, I forgot that was Judy Hayward, who also took a prize. Jean Kelly's wooden leg was another attraction, whose owner won a prize, too. Then I got a glimpse of Mary Lu B. (Carmen Miranda) dancing with Don. Normadean LaRae came dressed as a fairy. There were several rushes for the door to get cider and doughnuts.—Ann Bleakley and Nancy Allen.

Barnum Gym Classes

The girls in Barnum Junior High School are playing volley ball now and like it very much. The 7th, 8th, and 9th grades have played Adams 7th, 8th, and 9th grades in speed ball. The scores were: 7th grade, 0 to 0; the 8th grade, 3 to 2, which Adams won; and the 9th grade was 14 to 0 in favor of Barnum.—Lois Brown.

U. of D. Will Play Daylight Game

DETROIT.—Coach Herb Kopf will bring his "young men of Manhattan" to the University of Detroit stadium next Saturday to meet Coach "Gus" Dorais' Titans in the first daylight game that the Red and White team has played at home this season. And team coached by Kopf is bound to be respected, for the Manhattan mentor ranks with Dorais in his ability to get the utmost out of whatever material there may be at hand.

For the last two years, the Jaspers have been handicapped by a very light team but things are looking up now and while the squad is shy of real big fellows, the line no longer need be known, as it was a year ago, as the "Seven Pipets." There are eleven men on the roster who weigh 185 or better and that's plenty big enough when they're smart.

Sicilian Singers In Assembly Today

The Apollo Concert Artists, featuring the distinguished Sicilian tenor, Geovanni Sperandeo and his wife, appear today at Baldwin auditorium in the regular weekly assembly.

Mr. Sperandeo will reveal his early life—how at the age of 18, after severing his hand in a railroad accident, he managed to continue his life in the manner of a normal person.

Having but little opportunity in his childhood, Mr. Sperandeo began school at 18 in the fourth grade. He graduated from high school and college and received his Master's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Sperandeo have been traveling over the country for the past year visiting different schools and putting on their show, which is done in costume.

Hills School Paper The Blue & White Now in 8th Year

BY JACK LAUVER

This year, the Bloomfield Hills School paper, the Blue and White, is in the eighth year of production.

It was begun in 1934 by a group of upper classmen. The paper was mimeographed and had its headquarters in the corner of one of the classrooms. Mr. Wood was the faculty advisor. In 1937, all copy was sent to either Birmingham or Pontiac where it was mimeographed and returned to the school. The illustrations were done by hectograph still in 1938. A mimeograph was acquired and as the new addition had been built on the school at this time, the paper was moved to a room separated from the study hall by a combination panel and glass partition.

Until this year, there has been but one editor. At present, however, there are two of them, Bobbie White and Marion Clarke being co-editors. The rest of the staff includes Brooke Oatman, business manager; Russell Dostal, Milk? puzzles; Jack Lauver, front page; Patti Keller, girls' sports; George Duffield, Jim Zeeger, Norman Clarke, Dick Gray, reporters; Bob Green, production manager; and Sally Carey and Maynard Zimmerman at the dances.

Allied Youth to Meet

The Allied Youth are holding their annual Inter-Post Halloween party at Clark's Barn on Milk? Road, west of Grand River on Friday, Oct. 31, 1941. The price will be 35 cents. Hay-ride, extra, 15 cents. There will be masquerade optional.

Mr. Tilson is the faculty advisor. The paper is put out every other Friday at noon.

Last Football Game

Friday afternoon the Bloomfield Varsity, minus three injured regulars, was defeated by the Cranbrook Junior Varsity in a closely fought, 6 to 0 battle.

Tuesday a Bloomfield field hockey team defeated one of the Kingswood teams, 3 to 0, while the Bloomfield 7th grade was beating Cranbrook 27 to 0.

BALDWIN HI-LIGHTS

BY ANN NONEMOUS

Hi Kids!

Well, the excitement is still continuing. The rehearsals for the Variety Show almost every night, football games, and the dinners on Saturday nights.

To add to the fall atmosphere the dance this week was decorated with black, red, yellow and brown leaves. Black balloons were used to represent musical notes, adding to the effect.

Nancy Dale was welcomed back to the dances by everyone, while her date, Jack McCormick, tried to get a few dances with her.

It was extremely good to see Armed Services high and Dearwood Gamble, and Sally Carey and Maynard Zimmerman at the dance.

What's this I hear? Barney? Standpo'son with Alice DeLee?

Kingswood's Barbara Scott was truckin' with Bob Halstead, while Cranbrook's Dick Cushing was escorting Sis Booth.

There was a certain gleam in the eyes of Mary Bronson and Phil Dodge as well as those of Muriel Lockrow and Harold Watts.

With very few Detroit kids at the dance, Birmingham guys and gals, among them Billie MacDonald, Louis Hagopian, Al Jones, Marilyn Gould, Nancy McCarty, Bill Gosling, Jane Dodds, Frank Watts, Nan Galbraith, and Wally Roy, had the floor to themselves.

The lights at Baldwin will be burning until late this week with rehearsals for the Variety Show and even on to the last minute, which will be November 5, 6, and 7, the dates of the opening of Club 41.—ANNIE
