Cookerly Home Scene of Informal Wedding, Saturday

The T. B. Cookerly home on Bayview road was the scene of a charming informal wedding at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Nancy Caplin, daughter of Mrs. Belet Caplin, of Saffin, and Collet became the bride of Russ Will Mayberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mayberry, of Bedford. The Rev. Bostwick, of Bedford, read the services.

Safety came out from California in a few weeks ago for a visit and decided to be married here rather than on the coast. Mrs. Caplin and her daughter, Nancy, came on last week for the wedding and Mrs. H. J. Carlin, of Minneapolis, 3. Miss Cookerly's mother was also here. The bride's maid, Mrs. H. J. Carlin, and her friends, both having lived in Minneapolis at one time.

The bride came an afternoon of dress of green, black and red, and a garage of tall main roses for her wedding. The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of ferns, the rest of the house being decorated with ferns and white flowers, gladioli and lilies.

Polygon Club Plans Membership Party, Hayride for Friday

A back-up program is being planned for this week's meeting of the Polygon Club of the First Presbyterian Church. The meeting, in charge of the Club's membership committee, Page Blinn, Ruth Savage, Bill Cole, and Lorraine Stanley, chairman, is being conducted as part of the annual membership drive.

Old members, new members, and social members will meet at the church at 8 o'clock on Friday and start the evening off with socially arranged get-together games after which everyone will leave in cars for the Franklin Hills Riding Stables where a hayride will be awaiting.

Lloyd and Ann Stanley and Bill Cole are in charge of refreshments which will be served when the hayride returns. The football non-conference has been planned to take place at 2 o'clock on the afternoon. To be followed by a lecture hour from 7 to 8 p.m. For the convenience of those attending the Michigan football game at Ann Arbor in the afternoon, drive has been made optional.
