

Centuries ago, when the foundation for our present civilization was laid down, the elders would tell their sons: 'Be a prophet, like your father. Be a man of your own country, and yourself.' The modern axiom to many elders is: 'Make a profit, my son. Be a man of your own country, and yourself.' The modern axiom to many elders is: 'Make a profit, my son. Be a man of your own country, and yourself.'

How to Live and That

By G. R. A. ... Do You Like to Sing? The use of music in church services as a religious aid is not a new thing. It is as old as the hills. It is both inspiring and soothing goods without argument. For, as William Shakespeare once said for all time: "The man who hath no music in himself, nor is not moved by concord of sweet sound, is fit for treason, stratagems, and spoils; ... let no such man be trusted." ...
