

Hemmerly, Bell's Turner pitches to Hitter to Shut Out Babcock

Two Top Teams Begin 3 Out of 5 Tournament Finals

By JACK RIDGEN
Everett Hemmerly, S. O. Wylie Bell right-hander, picked the only soft ball game of the local softball season as he batted his team to a 4-0 victory over Babcock's team to meet Dayer's Market in the final round for the city championship. The finals started last night and will continue until tomorrow with three victories.

30 More Hopes Cheer Wurster at Football Practice

Birmingham Football League, Sept. 20—George Foster, cheer leader, cheered the 30 new members of the team at their first practice. The cheerleader, Foster, led the team in a series of stunts and a fielder's choice to MacDiarmid who was safe and a moment later took scored on a long jump by Danny Lewis.

Softball Shorts

By JACK RIDGEN
A proposition has been brought up from several sources as to the advisability of holding a tournament at the end of the softball season sometime next week or early in the fall. This could be very easily handled and we would like some expression of opinion on this subject before plans are laid.

Shortage of Coal In New England

Fuel allocation officials of the United States War Relocation Authority are seeking to avert a coal shortage that is threatening the New England area this winter. Drought in the New England states limited the amount of hydroelectric energy available this summer and resulted in a greater than usual consumption of coal for power-generating purposes.

One-Hit Game
This qualified Bell to face Dayer's Market which won the right to play when they upset the league-leading Bell team on Monday evening when George LaCharity, ace Dayer's right hander, hurled one-hit ball. The only man to hit safely off George was Letty Grambeau, who incidentally is playing a bang up game in the playoffs.

Single Scores Two
Bell's next run came in the third inning when Grambeau led off with a free pass to first and advanced on a fielder's choice to Poter who was safe and both came home on a single by Kenny Hunt, ending the scoring for the game.

Power Agency
On the other hand, don't count Dayer's out too soon. The team which shot past Duke Poter and before he could retrieve the ball both Germain and Green had scored with the first two runs. Blitterer then walked, and after LaCharity and Bedard had fled out, Germain tripped to left center to score Blitterer and Andrews with the final two runs. That was all the scoring in the entire game. Bell's threatened time after time to score but couldn't break the
